Copies of the Declaration?

- Printer Dunlap Broadside made 200 copies of the Declaration but only 26 survived.
- In 1991, one of 24 known copies at the time of the Declaration and one of only three known to be privately owned, was auctioned for $2.4 million. What's even more staggering is where it was originally found.
- According to the New York Times, "The previous owner stated that he bought a torn painting for $4 in a flea market in Adamstown, Pa., because he was interested in its frame. When he got home, he said, he removed the painting – a dismal country scene – and concluded the frame could not be salvaged, but found the Declaration, folded and hidden in the backing."
- The 25th and 26th copies later surfaced – one was sold in excellent condition in 2000 for $8.1 million. A 26th copy emerged at the British National Archives in 2009, which was hidden for over 200 years in a box of papers seized during the Revolutionary War from American colonists.

The Bible is the most scrutinized, authenticated, scientifically and academically studied, carefully documented and transmitted piece of literature in history by an exponential factor—and it happens to make the internal claim to be the written word of God.

We will not believe more than we know, and we will not live higher than our beliefs. The many fronts of Christian compromise in this generation can be directly traced to biblical illiteracy in the pews and the absence of biblical preaching and teaching in our homes and churches.

*Post-Christian is defined based on the percentage of the population that meets Barna's post-Christian metrics. See barna.com/glossary for a detailed definition.

The data reported in this table are based upon telephone and online interviews with nationwide random samples of 76,505 adults conducted over a ten year period, ending in April 2016. The maximum margin of sampling error associated with the aggregate sample is ±0.4 percentage points at the 95% confidence level. Respondents who reported reading the Bible within the past seven days and who agreed strongly in the accuracy of the Bible were classified as "Bible-minded." BibleMindedCities.com

psalm 119:162

A close-up photograph of a person's hands cutting a cake that is shaped like a Bible. The cake is on a white plate with a decorative edge, which is placed on a woven placemat. The person is using a large knife to cut a slice, and a fork is being used to lift a piece. The cake has a dark brown, textured top layer and a lighter, yellowish-brown interior. The spine of the 'Bible' is visible, and the words 'HOLY BIBLE' are printed on the cover. A small sprig of green herbs is on the plate next to the cake. The background is a person wearing a blue and white striped shirt.
