Jesus Calling

To Live in My Presence consistently, you must expose and expel your rebellious tendencies. When something interferes with your plans or desires, you tend to resent the interference. Try to become aware of each resentment, however petty it may seem. Don't put those unpleasant feelings down; instead, let them come to the surface where you can deal with them. Ask My spirit to increase your awareness of resentful feeling. Bring them boldly into the Light of My Presence so that I can free you from them.

The ultimate solution to rebellious tendencies is submission to My authority over you. Intellectually, you rejoice in My sovereignty, without which the world would be a terrifying place. But when My sovereign will encroaches on your little domain of control, you often react with tell-tale resentment.

The response to losses or thwarted hopes is praise. The Lord gives and the Lord takes away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. Remember that all good things - your possessions, your family and friends, your health and abilities, your time - are gifts from Me. Instead of feeling entitled to all these blessings, respond to them with gratitude. Be prepared to let go of anything I take from you, but never let go of my hand!

Psalm 139: 23-24 1 Peter 5:6 Job 1:21

will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye" (Psalm 32:8).

Our responsibility is to trust God, even when we do not see or understand what He is doing. Our faith must not fail just because we are enduring trials and testing. Corrie ten Boom said, "When a train goes through a tunnel and it gets dark, you don't throw away the ticket and jump off. You sit still and trust the engineer." God does not make any mistakes, and He makes all the circumstances of our lives work together to refine us for our good and His glory.

We can trust God just as much when things are going wrong as we can when things are going well.

Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him: On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him: But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. Job 23:8-10

From a very early age, President Ronald Reagan's mother taught him to trust in God no matter what. In his book An American Life, Reagan wrote, "I was raised to believe that God had a plan for everyone and that seemingly random twists of fate are all a part of His plan. After I lost a job at Montgomery Wards, she told me that everything in life happened for a purpose. She said all things were part of God's plan, even the most disheartening setbacks, and in the end, everything worked out for the best."

God knows everything, and there are no accidents in His plan. He knows what we will do before we do it, and He knows what the results will be. God even knows what the results would be if we did something differently. Not only does God know what we should and will do, He offers us guidance and direction through His Word to help us choose what is right. David records God's promise this way: "I
