Jesus Calling

Open your mind and heart - your entire being - to receive My Love in full measure. So many of My children limp through their lives starved for Love because they haven't learned the art of receiving. This is essentially an act of faith: believing that I love you with boundless, everlasting Love. The art of receiving is also a discipline: training your mind to trust Me, coming close to Me with confidence.

Remember that the evil one is the father of lies. Learn to recognize his deceptive intrusions into your thoughts. One of his favorite deceptions is to undermine your confidence in My unconditional Love. Fight back against these lies! Do not let them go unchallenged. Resist the devil in My Name, and he will slink away from you. Draw near to Me, and My Presence will envelop you in Love.

Ephesians 3:16-19; Hebrews 4:14-16 John 8:44 James 4:7-8 anything except what God has said. They view the Bible as old fashioned and too strict, so they look for another way. But there is no other way.

Every one of us must decide whether we accept what the Bible teaches or not. That is true when it comes to salvation, and it is just as true when it comes to the Christian life. Mark Twain famously said that it was not the parts of the Bible he didn't understand that bothered him, but rather the parts he did understand. We don't get to pick and choose—if we would be in God's family and live in a way that pleases Him, it can only be done on His terms.

Even when it is not what we want to hear, we must accept and obey what God says in His Word.

Accepting The Truth

Dr. Paul Chappell

The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

John 18:19-21

Most of the Pharisees who controlled much of the religious establishment at the time of Christ hated Him. Rather than accepting Him as the Messiah for whom they claimed to be waiting, they refused to heed His message. They were happy with the way things were and saw no reason to upset the power structure they had created. Their self-righteousness meant that they were unwilling to repent and acknowledge that they needed a Savior. The problem was not that they had not heard the truth. Jesus proclaimed it publicly again and again. The problem was that they would not heed the truth.

The Lord does not allow us to come to Him on our own terms. We must accept salvation through Jesus alone, or we will never receive it. It is imperative that we heed the message rather than try to find alternative ways through which we can gain acceptance in His sight. So many people today are willing to believe and do almost
