A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Church family,

Your leaders and I care deeply about you and intentionally spend time praying for you each week. If you are a visitor with us today, know we also prayed for you. This week I want you to be reminded that it's ok for you to not be ok. I recognize how hard life can be, regularly filled with challenges that can weigh you down. It's my desire that you never feel like you have to 'put on a smile' and cover up your struggles here at church. Hear this, at Memorial it's ok for you to not be ok. You are enough, you are valuable, we want you here just as you are. Sunday mornings and being with other believers should be a time of refuge and restoration from the week.

Church members, here's what I'm asking of you, that you would continue the work of creating a church culture that reflects the character and heart of Christ. I hope our church would be a place where we can let our guard down, be genuine and sincere with one another. The safest place for any person should be the church, around Christ followers who love and care for one another as Christ has loved and cared for us.
