Welcome to St. Luke Church, especially if you are a newcomer or visitor. Children of all ages are fully welcome in each liturgy. If you are a visitor, please sign the Guest Book located in the Narthex and fill out a Visitor Card. Newcomer packets are also available upon request. Please refer to the Book of Common Prayer (beginning on pg. 67) and the Hymnal throughout the Mass. We ask that you please keep prayerful silence in the church both before and after the liturgy. Silence is golden, but especially in church!

Today, we celebrate the Feast of our Patron, St. Luke the Evangelist. Luke was a physician of Antioch, who, as appeareth from his writings, knew the Greek language. He was a follower of the Apostle Paul, and his fellow traveller in all his wanderings. He wrote a Gospel, whereof the same Paul saith 'We have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches'. Of him, he writeth unto the Colossians, 'Luke, the beloved physician, greeteth you.' He also published another excellent book entitled The Acts of the Apostles, wherein the history is brought down to Paul's two-years sojourn at Rome, that is to say, until the fourth year of Nero, from which we gather that it was at Rome that the said book was composed. There are some persons who suspect that when Paul in his Epistles useth the phrase, 'According to my Gospel', he meaneth the Gospel written by Luke.

However, Luke learned his Gospel not from the Apostle Paul only, who had not accompanied with the Lord in the flesh, but also from other Apostles, as himself declareth at the beginning of his work, where he saith 'They delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word'. According to what he had heard, therefore, did he write his Gospel. As to the Acts of the Apostles, he composed them from his own personal knowledge. He was never married. He lived eighty-four years. He is buried at Constantinople, whither his bones were brought from Achaia in the twentieth year of Constantine, together with the relics of the Apostle Andrew.

Station at the Icon of St. Luke

∞. Their sound is gone out into all lands.

℞. And their words into the ends of the world.

Let us pray. Almighty God, who calledst Luke the physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist, and Physician of the soul; May it please thee, that by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Please kneel during the Introit.

Introit
Right dear are thy friends unto me, O God, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding stedfast. Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my downsitteing and mine uprising. Gloria Patri.
