

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Michael's Day "Blue Mass"—THANK YOU!

St. Luke would like to thank all of the Richmond County deputies who joined us for today's service, and to express our appreciation for your commitment to service & protect the Augusta community. Please join us for a special breakfast next door in the parish hall!

About Saint Luke

St. Luke has been part of the Augusta community since 1981. It is a parish of the Anglican Catholic Church (ACC), a worldwide jurisdiction of Continuing Anglicanism that upholds traditional doctrine, practice, and morals of classic Christianity. The ACC and its partner jurisdictions minister in a dozen countries.

Welcome to St. Luke Church, especially if you are a newcomer or visitor. Children of all ages are fully welcome in each liturgy. If you are a visitor, please sign the Guest Book located in the Narthex and fill out a Visitor Card. Newcomer packets are also available upon request. Please refer to the Book of Common Prayer (beginning on pg. 67) and the Hymnal throughout the Mass. We ask that you please keep prayerful silence in the church both before and after the liturgy. Silence is golden, but especially in church!

¶ Please stand as the bells are rung.

3 Ye saints, who toil below,
Adore your heav'nly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what he gives
And praise him still,
Through good or ill,
Who ever lives!

4 My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above:
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love!
Let all thy days
Till life shall end,
Whate'er he send,
Be filled with praise.

The Holy Communion

¶ Any baptized Christian who is a regular communicant in the Anglican, Orthodox, or Roman Catholic traditions is invited to receive the Blessed Sacrament. If you are unable or do not wish to receive the Holy Communion, you may approach with your arms crossed over your chest, and the priest will extend you a blessing. Whilst in your pew, please remain in quiet prayer.

Communion Sentence

O ye Angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: sing ye praises, and magnify him above all for ever.

¶ After Holy Communion, we ask that you keep quiet reverence as you depart, and suggest that you make your Communion Thanksgiving at this time. Suitable devotions may be found on pg. 100ff of St. Augustine's Prayer Book, and at the bottom of this page. Please wait until arriving in the Parish Hall before carrying on conversations with others. Thank you for your assistance as we strive to make St. Luke's a place of prayer, reverence, and peace.

Thanksgiving Prayer for the Holy Communion

RENDER thanks unto thee, most gracious Lord Jesus Christ, true Light, the salvation of believers, the solace and hope of all the sorrowful, the joy of the Angels; that thou hast vouchsafed this day to feed my thy servant, a miserable and great sinner, with thy most sacred Body and Blood. Wherefore I, most miserable and tainted with numberless faults, with tearful prayers do implore thy most tender mercy and great clemency, that this most sweet refreshment, this high and incomprehensible Communion, may not be to me for Judgement of my soul; but may profit me as a remedy for driving out all the deceit and wickedness of the devil's guile, so that no iniquity of his may dominate me in my heart, body, soul, and senses; but that thy mercy may bring me to the heavenly feast of the Angels, where thou art true blessedness, glorious light, and everlasting joy. Amen.

¶ Please kneel during the Introit.

Introit

O praise the Lord, ye Angles of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words. Praise the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name. Gloria Patri.

Blessing for Law Enforcement

℣. Our help is in the Name of the Lord.

℟. Who hath made heaven and earth.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

¶ First, the minister shall bless the St. Michael medals, which will be distributed to the officers by the usher.

We beseech thee, Almighty God, to pour thy blessing upon the police officers of our land: strengthen and preserve them in every danger; that they, who protect our lives and property while they faithfully perform their duties, may so serve thee here that they fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, ✠ bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favour look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace; that, with the assistance of St. Michael the Archangel, remaining stedfast in faith and defended from all adversities in this life, in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

¶ Please stand for the Offertory Sentence and Hymn.

Offertory Sentence

An Angel stood at the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand, and there was given unto him much incense: and the smoke of the incense ascended up before God, alleluia.
