Weekly Newsletter of Covenant Presbyterian Church - December 1, 2021
Laurie Johnson, Office Manager & Newsletter Editor

Covenant is an accepting, welcoming community sharing the glory of God's love with all.

From our pastor

Advent is here, and this Sunday week we began our four week journey to Christmas, following our theme, "Close to Home." If you have not yet picked up your Advent devotionals, we will have more available for you this Sunday. In this first week, we are allowing ourselves to feel homesick. I think we've all been homesick these past couple years. I know we can never go back to what was, but I'm still hoping for something better than what is, and that's what Advent is all about. Advent is about hope, which is different than either optimism or despair. Optimism says, don't worry, things will get better. Despair says that tomorrow will be the same as today. As we looked at Jesus words in Luke 21:25-36, Jesus does not promise things will get better. His words suggest things may well get worse, and that's OK. At some point, optimism runs out of steam, and we all end up in despair, and that's when Jesus says, "Now when these things begin to happen, stand up straight and raise your heads, because your redemption is near." When the world starts to fall apart, Jesus says straighten your back, and look up because God is entering our homesick world. The hope of Advent is that God has come to us and is still coming, to dwell with you in both the darkness and the light. Emmanuel means God with us, and God has come to dwell with us in Jesus Christ, to taste every bit of despair this world has to offer just to be near to you. God has made God's home with us, and because of that, we can look to the future with hope.

SPECIAL OFFERING

Each year, Covenant has four special offerings. The fourth is the Christmas Joy offering which will be received Sunday, December 12. This special offering is distributed equally to the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions and to Presbyterian-related schools and colleges. Look for more details in the Sunday bulletin.

ART EXHIBIT & PRESENTATION IN COVENANT LOUNGE

Please check out the newly installed art exhibit in the lounge. The original artworks are by Cody F. Miller, the featured artist in this year's "Horizons" study booklet for Covenant Presbyterian Women's groups. Cody lives in Columbus, is a graduate from Columbus College of Art and Design, and has received numerous awards and recognitions for his art. His works are shown in solo and group exhibits, art festivals, museums, and galleries in Ohio and around the US. His illustrations appear in Christian publications. He will be speaking at the PWC coffee Dec. 1, 9:30 in Fellowship Hall. The exhibit will remain in the lounge till the end of December.

SEEKERS OF THE LIGHT

A Cantata for Christmas

by
Lloyd Larsen and Mark Hayes

Jubilate
MUSIC

COVENANT CHRISTMAS CANTATA

Join us Sunday, December 19th at 10AM

The world was lost in darkness. Roman oppression weighed heavily, and God's people were awaiting a Messiah. There were astrologers, literally following the light of the heavens and prophecies of the coming Messiah. But there were other "seekers of the Light": Mary and Joseph, simple shepherds in a field, and the prophets. Then, it happened: the Light of the World was born. Follow the respective journeys of these "seekers of the light" to learn what we can from their sojourns. May we likewise seek and find The Light for our journey... and transform our lives with a fresh touch of God's miraculous grace and gift of love.

Songs include: Prelude; Sing We Now of Christmas; Prepare!; Come

Near to the Manger; Angels Shout the News Tonight; Hurry to Bethlehem!; Seekers of the Light and Behold! Rise Up! Go Tell! Shine!

Featuring our very own Chancel Choir, soloists, and musicians. Don't miss this special service!

Thank you for your HOSPITALITY extended to MWA Families this Thanksgiving

- Frozen Turkeys (almost 60)

When combined with the many other volunteers from MWA, the many donations from others of more turkeys, fresh onions, potatoes, celery, baked goods, boxes of stuffing, cake mixes, and cans of other needed items, all were fed and all felt the...

LOVE OF CHRIST and the GLORY OF GOD'S LOVE as we partnered with our community, practicing our FAITH AND HUMANITY in service of others. Praise God!

HM3 UPDATE – HOGE'S, MUSIC, MESSAGE, MEAL

Hoge Presbyterian Church offers the HM3 program every Saturday for its community in Franklinton including Music, Message, and a Meal. Area churches assist with the Meal, and Covenant creates and serves a hot, home-made meal every 3rd Saturday. Servers and guests are asked to wear masks when not eating.

Current attendance at HM3 leads us to bring enough for 50 meals. We need groups (or individuals) to step forward to serve.

- The third Saturdays for the rest of 2021 are covered! Thank you!
- We're accepting sign-ups for 2022, starting with January 15th, February 19th, and so on.

Please sign up and/or learn more through this tool: <https://bitly.com/CovenantHM3SignUp> or by contacting Cathy Levy (send an email to covenant@covenantpcusa.org and in the subject line type HM3/Levy). By splitting up the work, it's easy, and many of us can help our neighbors with life-giving food offered with open hearts.

Here we share part of a letter of thanks from one of the members of the HM3 community from the October 16th HM3 program. He made several copies and left them on the tables for us to discover, and at the top of the letter, he wrote, "Disseminate widely".

I want to thank you for all the meals that you've provided for me. I know that all of you put in a lot of work, time, for this donation. I compliment the creative efforts in this endeavor. I thank all of you for the respect that you show me (us) while doing this charity service. You are under no obligation (as far as I know) to give your precious resources of time and effort in this charitable endeavor. Time can't be recovered.... Thank you so much....

PRAYER CHAIN

Contact Laurie Johnson (lauriejohnson@covenantpcusa.org) if you would like to join the members and friends of Covenant who pray for those requesting our prayers.
