December 2021

Dearest Church Family,

I am so blessed again this year to write this Christmas message to all of you. We find ourselves once more in the season of Advent. The time leading up to Christmas where we joyfully anticipate the celebration of the Nativity while simultaneously looking forward to our Messiah’s second coming. But even as I write this, I realize that we actually do this every day. We are always anticipating our Savior. We are looking forward with hope, joy, peace and wonder at both a baby born as a Savior and a Savior coming as a King. What a beautiful way to live our lives!

The fact that we get to do this as a church family is an added benefit of our faith. I look back on this last year and remember times when we have laughed together, held each other through grief, studied His word together and lifted up songs to His holy name in one accord. It has blessed me and I pray it has blessed you.

I am sure many of you love “O Holy Night” as I do. The final verse says:
Truly He taught us to love one another;
His law is love and His gospel is peace.
Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother,
And in His name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grate chorus raise we;
Let all within us praise His holy name.
Christ is the Lord! O praise His name forever!
His pow’r and glory evermore proclaim!
His pow’r and glory evermore proclaim!

This is my fervent prayer for our Mt. Carmel Family and Christians around the world.

Charles, Kayleigh, Rylie and I want to wish you all a Blessed Christmas Season.

Merry Christmas with Love,
Amy
