WEEKLY PLAN

Week 4: This Present Generation

The sum of this month's series ends with a reminder for this present generation (parents) to be full of integrity. The next generation desperately needs an honest generation of parents and mentors who will model faithfulness and righteousness for them.

PRAYER TIME

THIS IS YOUR DAILY SCRIPTURE:

You did not choose me, but I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce fruit and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give you (John 15:16).

THIS IS YOUR DAILY PRAYER:

Lord, You have chosen me. You have appointed me to go and produce fruit and that Your fruit should remain. Lord, as your child you tell me that I can ask for anything in your name and You will give. This is my humble prayer for my family _____.

DRIVE TIME

CONVERSATION

PARENT PRE-READING: A righteous person acts with integrity; his children who come after him will be happy (Prov. 20:7).

CONVERSATION STARTER: I was reading in Proverbs 20 and it talks about how a righteous person acts with integrity and his children will be happy. Has there been a time when the way I acted made you proud?

DINNER TIME

CONVERSATION

STARTING QUESTIONS

How do you feel like you best learn new things?

READ THIS TOGETHER

What you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, commit to faithful men who will be able to teach others also (2 Tim. 2:2).

SCRIPTURAL APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Paul wanted to make sure that an understanding of who Jesus is and what He had done continued to be taught and passed along. What is something you believe God has been showing you lately about who He is?

If there was one thing that you wanted everyone in this family to know about God, what would you teach us?

Why did you choose that to share?

ACTIVITY TIME

LEGACY WORDS

The activities this month are all about parents leaving a legacy. Yet, the legacy we want to leave is not our own but pointing our children to the Father. This month our activity is the same each week done in different ways. It's all on the shoulders of the parents giving something special to their children—God's Word. Leaving a legacy is not all about talking about God's Word. They have to see it in our eyes. We are leaving this week very open to your interpretation. We are praying that God will show you exactly how to live out your faith in front of your child this week. Take some time as a family and talk about this. But no matter what you do. Put it into action!
