LESSONS FROM FIRST SAMUEL

1 Samuel 9:18-21 "Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, "Would you please tell me where the seer's house is?" <sup>19</sup> "I am the seer," Samuel replied. "Go up ahead of me to the high place, for today you are to eat with me, and in the morning I will send you on your way and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup> As for the donkeys you lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel turned, if not to you and your whole family line?" <sup>21</sup> Saul answered, "But am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest tribe of Israel, and is not my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why do you say such a thing to me?"

LESSONS FOR US:

- Be humble.
  - Before he became King of Israel, Saul was a very humble man. As royal priests, we also are to be humble.
  - Ephesians 4:2 "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love."
  - Philippians 2:3 "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves,"
  - Colossians 3:12 "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience."
  - James 4:10 "Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up."
