LESSONS FROM FIRST SAMUEL

1 Samuel 12:1-4 "Samuel said to all Israel, "I have listened to everything you said to me and have set a king over you. ² Now you have a king as your leader. As for me, I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have been your leader from my youth until this day. ³ Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the Lord and his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe to make me shut my eyes? If I have done any of these things, I will make it right." ⁴ "You have not cheated or oppressed us," they replied. "You have not taken anything from anyone's hand."

LESSONS FOR US:

- Be trustworthy.
 - Samuel was the leader of the Israelites for many years and when asked if he was trustworthy, the Israelites said he was. Christians need to be known for being trustworthy.
 - An elder is not to be a lover of money, 1 Timothy 3:3.
 - A deacon is not to be a pursuer of dishonest gain, 1 Timothy 3:8.
 - A Christian is to keep their life free from the love of money, Hebrews 13:5.
 - 1 Timothy 6:10 "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs."
