

A Global Movement of Evangelical Presbyterian Churches

CHURCH INFORMATION FORM

The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of “matching” ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the individual pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and for evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and commitment to open communication.

The Church Information Form presents the local congregation’s history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will be of help in facilitating the search process, assisting the church in focusing on future directions and pastors in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

CHURCH INFORMATION FORM

15. In what ways does your church participate in ecumenical activities?

- For the last seven years, Omak Community Presbyterian Church (CPC) has directed Camp Chelan, which involves several churches in our area. Camp Chelan's mission is to reach the youth in our valley with the Gospel.
- Several members provide a monthly meal and Christian message at Manfisher Ministry; a ministry focused on our community's needs.
- CPC is the official drop-off location for Operation Christmas Child.
- CPC hosts Christian events such as The Father's Ranch Concert and Adam's Road Concert that are open to the community. Both ministries share the Gospel.
- CPC has a booth at the county fair, where we offer refreshments and prayer.
- CPC hosts Classical Conversations, a Christian homeschool group that meets once a week during the school year.

16. Describe the strengths of your congregation.

We have a unified commitment to the Bible as God's word to us, a strong sense of community, a willingness to care for each other, and a desire to reach out to our community.

17. List specific problems with which your congregation struggles.

Though we are involved in several outreaches to our community, we struggle with how to grow in this area.

18. List major goals that the congregation has set for itself.

Three goals guide our life together in this order:

1. Surrender - Proclaiming the Gospel, so others come to saving faith.
2. Connect - Inviting our congregation to connect with other believers through Sunday service, small group Bible studies, men's breakfast, women's ministry, youth group, and other ministries.
3. Serve - Encouraging the congregation to use their gifts and talents to serve in the church body and community outreach.

Part 5: Church History

1. What do you consider to be the three most important events in the history of your church?

1. Omak Presbyterian Church was the first Protestant church in the young town of Omak, Washington. Established in 1907, it was incorporated in 1910.
2. Our congregation moved from the PSUSA to the EPC in 2012 with the overwhelming support of members.
3. We started streaming services online, making it possible for people at home to join in worship.

2. What do you consider to be the most interesting and challenging event in the life of your church in the last three years?

1. How our church has met challenges says much about those who have gone before and those who remain.
  - a. Arson completely destroyed our building in 1988, we rebuilt a structure that stands as one of the loveliest in the county.
  - b. During an especially dangerous wildfire that came through our area, members met in the church and made sandwiches and cards for the firefighters.
  - c. With the advent of COVID, our doors were closed for two weeks, after which our elders decided to open the doors and hold services, though with plenty of precautions. Of course not all are attending as there are those who prefer for their own medical or personal reasons to isolate a while longer. Personal responsibility and freedom are the rule and we respect the individual choice made by our congregants.
  - d. We are most definitely a church body that shows love for its members. The body life— how we care for one another, how we put special effort in to making even fun events uplifting, and basically the genuine love and friendship in our congregation—is exceptional.
