JOURNEYS

ACTS 13-19

Matt Jackson

January 30, 2022

Welcome Home!

Well, this weekend is bringing some of the coldest weather we have seen in Florida in quite some time. In times like these, we prepare in advance for what is coming. Maybe it's covering some of your plants so they don't freeze. Maybe it's making sure your pets are warm and inside instead of freezing outside. Maybe it's giving yourself more time to get to church on Sunday morning knowing that you don't function in cold weather and your car may not function either! Maybe it's making sure you have your hot coffee ready to go before you walk out the door. Being prepared is crucial. Being prepared in the Christian life is crucial as well. In fact, this morning we will be taking a look at Acts 17:16-34 as we see Paul continue on his Missionary Journey! This weekend we will be taking a hard look at his trip to Athens, a place where Jesus was not known and many people had no religious background that you could connect to on common ground. However, know that this particular trip really applies to us in so many ways today, especially to those who love to have deep spiritual discussions and argue with intellectual people. God tells us to be ready in season and out of season for the hope we have in Christ Jesus. So, what does that look like? How do we do it in love? This is exactly what we will be examining this Sunday! So, make sure you dress warm, give yourself plenty of time to get ready, and know that we will have hot coffee and hot cocoa ready for you on Sunday morning!

Additionally, on February 6th, I can't wait to preach on the Vision we have moving forward as a church. We are getting the whole church family together that morning and will meet at 10:30 AM for worship. Sunday School groups will have the opportunity to meet at 9 AM and we will be assigning class rooms for that morning as well (see below). Please make every effort to be part of Vision Sunday in person, but if you sick or feeling sick or out of town, we will be streaming live on Facebook and YouTube. This is too important to miss. Additionally, I call on all prayer warriors to be praying for a mighty outpouring of God's Spirit upon His church and that we in unity will prepare our hearts for what God is doing!

Blessings,
Pastor Matt

Vision Sunday Announcement!

On February 6, 2022 we will be having ONE combined service at 10:30 AM. All Sunday School classes that would like to meet are encouraged to meet at 9 AM that morning. We will be asking a few classes to change location just for that morning in order to accommodate everyone who would like to meet. We will send out room assignments the week before so you can relay this to your group in plenty of time. We want to encourage everyone to plan on attending on Vision Sunday as Pastor Matt will outline his vision moving forward and how each person in the body can be part of this exciting time at Eau Gallie First. We can't wait to see you!
