SEEING IS BELIEVING, OR SO THEY SAY

Have you heard that we have an art exhibit coming to St. Paul's in Lent?

Hopefully that's a joke, because I truly hope you've heard about The Saint John's Bible exhibit that will be here for five weeks. There is so much that we will be learning about The Saint John's Bible while it's here: the dream that brought it to life, the incredible artists and calligraphers who poured years of their life into this project, the fact that this was the first time in 500 years that a Bible project like this was completed, and more.

But, why? Why undertake such an endeavor?

Quite simply, the answer is the Word. This is God's Word brought to life in a whole new way. Okay, it's not "new" because religious art has been around for centuries, but this is art that illuminates God's Word in a way that is meant to connect with us and our lives today.

During the season of Lent, instead of only reading the Bible or hearing scripture read to us, we will be doing some "holy looking" or "divine seeing." You will be invited to look at an image and pray with it. How might the elements of the artwork set your mind on prayer, or open your heart to experience God's Holy Word from a new outlook? I imagine each and every one of us will see and experience something different in all of these illuminations. (An illumination is the product of an artist who has taken a passage of scripture and made it "luminous or shining" through art and interpretation.)

I also wonder how this exhibit can get us thinking creatively about, well, everything! Could this unleash an inner artist inside of you? Or might it allow you to experience God in a way you hadn't before? We are planning some different activities that will invite you to try some different things. Because, really, when was the last time many of us colored with a crayon??

I could go on and on and on about this opportunity – we've been dreaming about it for over two years now – but I'll simply invite you to come and experience it. Help us spread the word about it this month, and make plans to join us for opening weekend events on March 6!

LENT / ST. JOHN'S BIBLE

LENTEN SEASON

The season of Lent starts a little later this year, but we hope you will make plans to join us for many of our Lenten activities. Please mark your calendars:

Ash Wednesday: Wednesday, March 2, Worship at 7:00 pm.

CCACA Lenten Breakfasts: The Church Alliance hosts their weekly breakfasts each Wednesday morning at 7:30 am, starting on March 9, in the St. Paul's Fellowship Hall.

Soup Supper: A light supper will be offered each Wednesday evening before the midweek Lenten services, starting on March 9, at 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Midweek Worship: We gather for worship in the Fellowship Hall, this year surrounded by the images from The Saint John's Bible, each Wednesday starting on March 9, at 7:00 pm. Refreshments will be served after the service.

THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

Don't forget! During Lent 2022, we will be hosting an art exhibit of seventeen prints from The Saint John's Bible, a fully handwritten and illuminated Bible commissioned by The Saint John's Abby in Collegeville, Minnesota. This is a world-renowned project that is both a work of art and a work of theology. This Bible brings us the Word of God through visual art. We hope that many people will come see it!

This exhibit kicks off on Sunday, March 6, with a special program and the first opportunity to see the prints. We welcome Rev. Michael Patella, Professor of Theology and New Testament at Saint John's University, who chaired the Committee on Illumination and Text for The Saint John's Bible. He will be with us for what we expect will be a wonderful day on March 6: 9:00 am – Sunday School program about monasticism and the tradition of illuminated Bibles.

10:00 am – Our worship service will include Father Patella and a brief introduction into experiencing the Word of God through visio divina.

◆ Lent 2022.....◆

THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

11:00 am – A fully catered meal is offered.

12:15 pm – Father Patella will introduce The Saint John's Bible, discuss many of the prints that are on display (why were these verses chosen for illumination when others were not) and offer ways that these images can be used in our Lenten practices.

Following the opening weekend, the Fellowship Hall will be open to the public on Thursdays (starting March 10) from 12:00 pm – 7:00 pm, and Fridays and Saturdays from 10:00 am – 4:00 pm. The exhibit will be set up through April 6. Other times during the week for groups and visitors to view the exhibit can be made by calling the church office for an appointment. A bookstore will also be available to purchase materials related to The Saint John's Bible.

Volunteers (members and non-members) will be on hand to welcome visitors during those times. If you are interested in volunteering, please let us know if you haven't already. We will have a short volunteer training session after worship on Sunday, February 20th in the Sanctuary.

We are so excited to host this exhibit! Please remember, though, that the Fellowship Hall will be unavailable for most other uses during these five weeks. More information will be on our website – www.stpauls.me/bible - and on promotional materials that we encourage you to share with others.

SATURDAY CASUAL SERVICE

Don't forget on those weeks that you have a Sunday morning commitment, Saturday worship begins at 5:30 pm and all are welcome!

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Come join the Adult Sunday School class at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday mornings. After we finish up a lesson or two of our Genesis Bible study, we will then immediately begin a study of the book of Daniel in January. The book of Daniel contains some well-known Bible stories, but also some perplexing prophecies and visions. Come join us as we walk through Daniel chapter by chapter and gain insight into the message of Daniel. Participants will have a study guide from several references to enhance our study. Come join us as we explore Daniel and discuss lessons learned we can apply to our lives.

HEALTH SERVICES

The Benton County Health Department will be here every Thursday from 8:00am until 10:00am to assist you with your health needs.

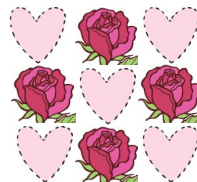

SOUPER BOWL

We're nearing the endzone of our Souper Bowl collection this year. The Cole Camp Food Pantry has again challenged area churches to help stock their shelves in the fight against hunger in our area. St. Paul's has elected to collect canned fruit (our very own Fruit Bowl) but any non-perishable items are welcome. Please leave those items by the goalposts in the Gathering Space by Sunday, February 13th. Will we be victorious so that the trophy can return to St. Paul's once again?

"ONE STITCH AT A TIME"

The Sewing Group will not meet during the winter months. See ya' in the spring!

health centers will be available at that time. Then the two MU Med students and Dr. Todd from the Cole Camp Clinic will offer a short presentation about how to care for yourself and your neighbors (well-being, mental health, watching for warning signs) in these challenging days. This event is focused primarily on those involved in agriculture, but anyone is welcome to attend. A free lunch from Hickman's Smokehouse will then be served, and things should wrap up by 1:00 pm.

ESTHER CIRCLE

LOVE NOTES

When it comes to relationships, kid quotes are priceless:

- "I love you so much that even God is amazed!"
- "Dear Mom, I love when you spend time with you." (A mom can only dream!)
- "I'm sorry that I've been chasing you outside. If you start to like me, I will not chase you."
- Responding to a note that asked, "Do you like me?" a child wrote, "I don't know. I don't know myself yet. Plus I'm under a lot of stress at home so, I can't tell. P.S. You don't know yourself until you're 18."
