Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time – 20th February 2022

Be compassionate as your heavenly Father is compassionate.

Five years ago we were gifted with the Jubilee Year of Mercy and the invitation to drink deeply of the mystery of God's mercy and compassion. In launching the Jubilee Pope Francis wrote: "We want to live this Jubilee Year in light of the Lord's words: Merciful like the Father. The Evangelist reminds us of the teaching of Jesus who says, "Be merciful just as your Father is merciful". It is a programme of life as demanding as it is rich with joy and peace. Jesus's command is directed to anyone willing to listen to his voice. In order to be capable of mercy, therefore, we must first of all dispose ourselves to listen to the Word of God. This means rediscovering the value of silence in order to meditate on the Word that comes to us. In this way, it will be possible to contemplate God's mercy and adopt it as our lifestyle."

The unique source of our compassion for one another (and for ourselves too) is our experience of God's compassion for us. The scriptures teach us that this compassion is like that of a mother or father for their child. It is something that is deep and visceral, a part of their very selves. It is com-passio, a suffering-with, that is also expressed in a forgiveness that longs for healing and return.

It is one thing, however, to read about it, another to experience ourselves on the receiving end of the Father's compassion and mercy. Pope Francis draws our attention to two particular places of encounter with the God of mercy and compassion. The first is silent prayer, meditating on the Word of God. In practices such as Lectio Divina, and in the profound silence that can sometimes follow in the Liturgy of the Word, the voice of God resonates in our hearts in a way that goes beyond the words to the person behind them. The second is the Sacrament of Reconciliation in which, presenting ourselves before the Father in our brokenness and weakness, he lifts us up and bestows his healing embrace upon us.

Being compassionate is a good thing. If we really want to practice it, we must first experience it for ourselves in the silence of prayer.
