Jesus Is Calling Today

You belong to Me. I have chosen you and called you out of darkness into My marvelous Light. The fact that you belong to Me - now and forever - provides a firm foundation for your life. This connection with Me can protect you from feeling out of or adrift in your ever-changing world. Many people attach themselves to hurtful people or harmful things because they yearn to escape their aloneness. But you are never alone, for you are Mine. I chose you before the creation of the world, and you are a permanent member of My royal family.

You need to walk in spiritual darkness before you trusted Me as Savior. I personally brought you out of that darkness into My Light - so that you might proclaim My praises. This is a delightful privilege and responsibility. I have entrusted you with the task of telling others about My awesome qualities. To carry out this assignment effectively, you need to delve into the riches of who I am by studying My Word. You also need to delight yourself in Me. Then the Joy of My Presence will shine from your face as you tell others about Me.

1 Peter 2:9 Ephesians 1:3-4 Psalm 37:4

Jesus Is Calling Today

Be strong and courageous. Do Not be discouraged, for I will be with you wherever you go. You can choose to be strong and courageous even when you are feeling very weak. However, the weaker you feel, the more effort it takes to choose to be strong. It all depends on where you look. If you gaze at yourself and your problems, your courage will melt away. The choice to be bold rests on your confidence that I am with you and for you. Through eyes of faith, see Me on the path before you, beckoning you on, one step at a time. Looking to Me consistently will increase your strength and valor.

When everything seems to be going wrong, refuse to get discouraged. Remember that I am God of surprises: I am not limited by the way things are or by the paltry possibilities you can see. I am infinitely creative and powerful. With Me all things are possible! The longer you wait for your prayers to be answered, the closer you are to a break through. Meanwhile, waiting for Me - aware of My loving Presence - is a blessed way to live. I am good to those who wait for Me.

no special call for its use. But let the need come, and the power will be manifested, for it is there.”

We live in a world filled with limits. We only have so much time in a day, so much money in the bank, so much strength to do our work. God is not like that. He has no limits at all. He is able to save people who seem impossible to reach. He is able to revive dead churches that seem to have no hope of restoration. He is able to heal diseases that seem to be medically hopeless. No matter what challenges or difficulties we may face, nothing we ask of God will strain His power. Our responsibility is to ask in faith for what we need, trusting Him to provide.

We can trust God's ability to work in any situation we face, no matter how hard it seems to us.

Closing Prayer

Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Ne-riah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, Jeremiah 32:16-18

The Irish evangelist W. P. Nicholson had a powerful and effective ministry. It is said that as a result of the revival he preached in Belfast, the shipyard there had to construct a building they called the "Nicholson shed" to make room for all the stolen tools that were returned by men who had been converted. In one of his preaching illustrations, Nicholson told of visiting a specialist for medical treatment which involved an electrical current. Not feeling anything, Nicholson asked the doctor when the treatment would start. The doctor told him it had already been going on for some time, but he would not feel it because he was insulated. Nicholson said, "My friends, you may have all the power of almighty God passing through you and yet be unconscious of it because there is
