Jesus Is Calling Today

Put your trust in Me, and I will keep you safe. There is a deep, deep yearning in your heart for safety and security. You can mask these longings with activity for a time, but only for a time. These feelings actually serve a very good purpose. Properly used, they can point you to Me and My sufficiency. I am the only One who can really, ultimately keep you safe.

Whenever you start to feel insecure—about anything—come to Me. Talk with Me about your fears and concerns; then affirm your trust in Me. Voicing your trust connects you with Me at a deep level. It also pushes back the darkness of deception. The evil one has been deceiving people ever since time began, since the Garden of Eden. Do not listen to his lies. Instead, put your trust in Me, for I am absolute Truth. As you come to know Me—the Truth—better and better, I make you increasingly free.

Proverbs 29:25 Genesis 3:13 John 14:6 John 8:32

Jesus Is Calling Today

Keep your eyes on Me! I am with you, taking care of you in the best possible way. When you are suffering, My care may seem imperfect and inadequate. You seek relief, and I make you wait. Just remember: There are many different ways to wait, and some are much better than others. Beneficial waiting involves looking to Me continually—trusting and loving Me.

Thank Me for this time of neediness, when you must depend on Me more than usual. Do not waste this opportunity by wishing it away. Trust that I know what I'm doing—that I can bring good out of everything you encounter, everything you endure. Don't let your past or present suffering contaminate your view of the future. I am the Lord of your future, and I have good things in store for you. I alone know the things I am planning for you—to give you a future and a hope.

Lamentation 3:25 Isaiah 40:31 Romans 8:28 Jeremiah 29:11 a week to come. We must draw upon God's boundless stores for grace from day to day, as we need it." We will never reach a point in this life when we can afford to stop being utterly dependent on God. We needed Him yesterday. We need Him today. We will need Him tomorrow. The wonder of His grace is that He is always there. When we are weak, He is strong; and if we flee to Him for refuge, He will lift us up. Nothing that we face poses a challenge to Him. His grace is always sufficient for whatever we need.

Strength For The Day

Dr. Paul Chappell

And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil. Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be. There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Deuteronomy 33:24-27

Before Moses said goodbye to the Israelites, he pronounced a series of blessings for the different tribes who were about to go into the Promised Land. One of the most beautiful of those blessings is the one for the tribe of Asher. Moses did not promise they would find things easy, but he did promise them God would provide what they needed for victory. The path through this world is often uncertain and difficult, but God's promise of grace and mercy and strength never fails.

God does not give it to us all at once, but rather day by day. D. L. Moody said, "A man can no more take a supply of grace for the future than he can eat enough today to last him for the next six months, or take sufficient air into his lungs to sustain life for
