do not have everything we want we can be satisfied, because God is always with us. "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Hebrews 13:5). True contentment is not born out of things, because anything we have here on earth can vanish away. True contentment is born out of the unfailing faithfulness and presence of God in our lives. That never changes. It is not affected by our bank balance, our fame, our popularity or anything else. And in God we can always be content.

If our faith and trust are in God, we will find it easy to be content with whatever He gives us.

Closing Prayer

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. 1 Timothy 6:6-9

Though Alfred Schofield was a skilled doctor as well as a noted Bible teacher, neither he nor any of his contemporaries were able to treat the skull fracture which his daughter suffered after being thrown from her horse. The injury gave her a great deal of pain, so Schofield hired nurses to help her throughout the long days and nights. Later he wrote, "When my daughter had been ill a fortnight, her nurse came to me and said she thought I would like to know that she had become a Christian. 'Why, what were you when you came?' I asked. 'I was an atheist, Doctor. Your daughter is the only absolutely contented girl I ever met, and I couldn't understand it, so I asked for her secret, and now I'm a Christian.'"

A Christian who is not content is not likely to be an effective witness for the Lord. If we have not found satisfaction in Him ourselves, why should others be interested in what we have to offer? Even when we

Jesus Is Calling Today

I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths. I know how confused you sometimes feel—and how much you long to find the way forward. You have tried so many different things; you have been so hopeful at times. Yet your hope-filled paths have led to disappointment. I want you to know that I fully understand how hard your journey has been. I also assure you that I can bring good out of every bit of it.

This is the way of wisdom: trusting Me no matter what happens in your life. It is through trust that you follow Me along the right path. There are many things that seem random or wrong as you go along your journey. Yet I am able to fit them all into a comprehensive plan for good—My Master Plan. So don't be fooled by the way things appear at a given point in time. You are looking at only a very small piece of a massively big picture. From your limited perspective, your journey may be confusing, with puzzling twists and turns. However, from My limitless, big-picture perspective, I am indeed leading you along straight paths.
