

The New World Order

Daniel 7, Revelation 13

Part 2- One World Government

- * The term _____ Roman Empire (which is not used in Scripture) refers to a powerful government predicted in biblical prophecy. This regime will rise to power and dominate the world during the end times.
- * According to various interpretations of the books of Daniel and Revelation, the Revived Roman Empire is either a generic _____ political system or a specific _____ under a specific ruler. Various interpreters have centered this empire in Rome itself, in Turkey, or in the Middle East.
- * The Revived Roman Empire is commonly associated with the fourth _____ of (Dan. 7:7). This beast is described as “terrifying and frightening and very powerful”. This ten-horned beast is a prophetic picture of the _____ Empire (vv. 19–24), but, as Daniel watches, a little _____ rises from the beast, with “eyes like the eyes of a human being and a mouth that spoke boastfully” (v. 8).
- * This final horn is the _____, who will somehow be connected with the Roman Empire.
- * The Revived Roman Empire has also been linked to the fifth and final _____ mentioned in (Dan. 2:41-43). This passage concerns Nebuchadnezzar’s dream of an image made of various metals. The _____ legs represent the Roman Empire, and the feet made “partly of iron and partly of baked clay” (Dan. 2:33) represent the final world _____.
- * The fact that it shares the element iron with the fourth kingdom suggests a connection to Rome, and the ten toes could imply a ten-nation _____ (matching the ten horns in Dan. 7:20) led collectively by a single powerful ruler.
- * Other commentators point to (Rev. 13:1), which describes a _____ coming from the sea having ten horns and seven heads. This depiction connects it to the fourth beast of (Dan. 7:7), which also has ten horns.
- * Revelation describes this _____ as “blasphemous” (v. 1) and tyrannical, requiring absolute submission in _____, _____, and _____ matters (v. 4–8).
- * The global power this nation wields is given to it by _____ (v. 2).
- * Speculation about the exact nature of the Revived Roman Empire can be interesting, but we must remember to keep the right perspective. Our primary focus as Christians is supposed to be spreading the _____, not trying to identify the _____.
