Anniversary Dinner

Time To
18 years!

Last November, we made the decision to move our annual Anniversary Dinner, to Palm Sunday due to COVID. That Sunday worked very well, so this year we will continue with this new tradition.

As we begin preparations for the dinner, here are some details you need to know.

When: Sunday, April 10th (Palm Sunday)

Where: CPCC Fellowship Hall

What time: 5:30 p.m.

What to bring: The main dish will be provided, please bring a dessert or side to share.

Watch for a sign up form in the Sunday bulletins beginning in March. We ask that you sign up in advance so we may plan accordingly. Thank you!

Provoke Me, Please!

The faith journey for all believers carries a great deal of weight. The longer I have been a Christ follower the more I have seen this weight divided. To begin with we have the weight of simply being a believer and what is called of us which is the magnitude of the gospel message and the command that first, we are saved by Jesus, and second, we are to give others the same opportunity to come to this same thought (Evangelism).

The other part of the weight is the found in maintaining a good and healthy lifestyle. This is the idea that we actually do become new wineskins (Matthew 9:16-17), no longer carrying on with our old rituals and lives. C.S. Lewis addresses this thought in his book, The Weight of Glory..

“It would seem that our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.”

In our culture there are many things that need to be addressed as believers. In fact, the Christian subculture calls us to take a stand on many social issues. In his book, Counter Culture, David Platt is very vocal about this thought. He writes,

“If you ask practically any popular Christian leader in the public square to make a statement on poverty, sex trafficking, or the orphan crisis, that leader will gladly, boldly, and clearly share his or her convictions. However, if you ask the same Christian leader in the same public setting to make a statement on homosexuality or abortion, that leader will respond with either nervous hesitancy or virtual heresy, if he or she responds at all.”

The idea behind the book is that we must see that countering culture will always prove to be costly to us. But I want to take this one step further in thought. What about countering our Christian subculture? This is simply the safe house or bubble that we have created in the church - projecting that we have it all together and that our sin lives have all but vanished.

It becomes all too natural for us to come, sit, enjoy, benefit, receive, appreciate, profit, and gain a plethora of personal satisfaction, but never feel a sense of personal responsibility for responding to the needs within our midst. I want to be clear here, I am not talking about social needs that surround us in the community. I am talking about the brokenness that surrounds us in our place of worship. I know this may push some people to think I'm promoting an attitude of self but, in essence, if we are not healthy inside the church, then what good are we to the world around us?

The result of Christian indifference to social issues is heavy. The outcome would make our world seem even more bleak than it already does. But the result of Christian indifference in the church body, specifically in our personal walk, will lead to the death of any church.

I know, cheery article, right? The author of Hebrews challenges this thought when he writes in Hebrews 10.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, <sup>21</sup>and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup>not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the day approaching. (Hebrews 10:19-25)

Clearly the walk of all believers is important. However, to pretend that we can do it alone, or that we have it in the bag and don't need assistance is only setting us up to fail. We all need community. It allows for this spurring on. The word spur in the text could also be translated as provoke. The idea of provoking might lead you to think that I am telling you to be pushy. I am, sort of, but in the most caring of ways. In my most obvious sin issues I find that most people don't want to engage me, even though the issues are painfully obvious. Therefore, I challenge those closest to me to point out my blind spots.

When we are open to being provoked in that way, we allow Christ to mold us and shape us like never before. I say this after seeing so many who were not open to this...the young bride and groom who are ready to call it quits, the pastor who threw in the towel because of his doubts, the seminary student who lost track of his own journey and no longer has a relationship with Christ, and the church leader who throws up his hands in frustration because of the apathy that surrounds him and chooses to walk away.

All of these hold two things in common. One, I am walking with them now in these things, and two, many of these could have been staved off had they been opened to being spurred on or provoked...community. My challenge to you is to inwardly ask God to reveal to you blind spots before they catch up to you, and for you to ask those closest to you to help point them out to you (provoke you), so that you are encouraged to continue in love and good deeds.

<sup>24</sup>And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds,

<sup>25</sup>not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-25)

- Swimming in the deep end,

Derek

The Blood of the Lamb

"A rattlesnake bit one of my sheep in the face about a week ago. Deadliest snake that lives around here. The sheep's face swelled up and hurt her terribly.

But the old rattlesnake didn't know the kind of blood that flows through the sheep. Anti-venom is most often made from sheep's blood. The sheep swelled for about 2 days but the blood of the lamb destroyed the venom of the serpent.

I was worried but the sheep didn't care. She kept on eating, kept on drinking and kept on climbing because she knew she was alright.

Often the serpents of this life will reach out and bite us. They inject their poison into us but they cannot overcome the blood of the Lamb of God that washes away the sin of the world and the sting of death. Don't worry about the serpent or his bite, just make sure that the Lamb's blood is flowing through your veins."

In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.

Anxious for Nothing

Lately I have noticed that I am in a strange place in my prayer life. I have always prayed; prayer is just a part of me. Being raised in a good Christian home and in the church laid a foundation of prayer that I have always carried with me. Throughout my life my habits of intentional, deliberate prayer have varied. Stronger at times and lacking at others, but near-constant, conversational prayer has always been a part of what makes me who I am.

Lately I have been thinking about a specific type of prayer, a type that can occur in both conversational and deliberate settings. I have been thinking about petitioning, asking God for things that we want or want to see happen. I have noticed that recently I haven't spent a lot of prayer time asking God for things.

About a month ago, I was up for a promotion at my other job. It was a competitive process with several people applying for the same promotion. I am at a place in that job where I don't necessarily need to be promoted. I am at a very good, comfortable stage in my career and I could be content with that for quite a while. At the same time, there were some definite positives to getting that promotion and advancing in that job. Let's just say I was "on the fence" about it. During my prayer time, I brought this situation up to God. During this prayer time I started thinking about how often (or how little, really) I petition God during prayer. I took a lot of comfort from not being too invested in any particular outcome of this situation. I was able to ask the Lord really, truly to simply do His will. That got me thinking...if I noticed I stopped petitioning, maybe I have gotten to a point in my life where I am able to trust Him and His will a lot more than I ever have. It isn't just in this particular situation either. I have decreased the amount of times I specifically ask God for a particular outcome on things because I am confident that whatever outcome He has in His plan will be the right one.

That got me thinking about Philippians 4:6, "Be anxious for nothing but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." He wants us to ask for what we want, He allows us to make our own requests. It is His perfect prescription for our human anxiety. Specific instructions to ask for what we want and thank Him for the outcome, whatever it may be. Now yes, I realize that in the above example, I wasn't particularly anxious about that promotion, but what about things that do cause me stress?

This morning I prayed for what is happening in Ukraine. I prayed for God's protection for the people of that country and for every life involved in that conflict. And then I petitioned God to not let World War III happen. But what if it does? I could almost audibly hear the Father reminding me to trust Him. I could feel a demonstration of Philippians 4:6 right there on my knees as I asked Him to not let the unthinkable happen. His will is perfect, His plan is perfect. No matter what happens, whether this conflict just becomes a paragraph in history textbooks or whether it changes the world as we know it, He has it all in His hands. I was suddenly "anxious for nothing."

I encourage you all to pray for peace, pray for the leaders of the world making important decisions that could potentially impact every person of this planet. Pray for the men, women, and children directly involved and impacted by what is happening in the world right now. Petition your Lord and Savior to protect them and to protect us all. And then... rest in that petition, trust in His perfect will.

Love you all, see you Sunday.

Greetings from the elders!

With the beginning of March, we are in the final month of the first quarter of 2022. The first quarter of each year is important to success in any organization, and churches are no different. The major difference is, in a church, success is measured by the growth of the Kingdom of God rather than financial or technical. To that end, we faced some challenges due to illness in our congregation. Jeff did a fantastic job filling in while Derek was out and we want to take another opportunity to say how proud of Jeff we are: Thank you Jeff, we are so thankful for you! We are also grateful that God still has work for Derek to do here on earth. When you have the opportunity, be sure to let our pastors know how much you appreciate them.

As we reflect on the challenges of the past couple of years and look to the future of Central Park Christian Church, we can see God's providence and grace. We know that our God is bigger than any virus, fear, or attack from the enemy. We continue to take reasonable precautions for the health and safety of the body of CPCC. We have sealed communion cups available for attendees, our deaconesses practice good food safety protocols while preparing the regular communion elements, the deacons wash/sanitize their hands prior to passing them, attendees are welcome to wear a mask, and we continue to offer an online service option for those who are unable to attend in person either due to illness or travel. However, as Paul wrote in his second letter to Timothy (2 Timothy 1:6-7):

For this I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

We must continue to fan into flame the gift of God through continued study of the Word, worshiping together, and building one another up in fellowship. The enemy will do all he can to prevent unity in the body and sidetrack the plans of the Lord. We know he is defeated, but he will thrash around like a shark in a boat (as Derek mentioned in his sermon on 2/20 as a phrase coined by Eric Cook to describe how Satan attempts to take others down with him) to destroy as much as possible.

A sub-group of the elders continues to meet regarding the pastoral needs of the church. We are reviewing and revising job descriptions to continue working towards the vision, mission, and core values of CPCC to advance the Kingdom of God for His glory. We ask that you continue to pray for this process and for God's wisdom to fill us. If you would like to pray with other members, you are invited to attend weekly prayer meetings held at the church (and on zoom) on Sunday mornings at 8:30am and Monday evenings at 6:00pm.

Thank you to everyone who donated soup and crackers during our Souper Bowl Sunday collection! We know that a can of soup can be a meal or two, and your generous donations helped stock our pantry, and provide meals for your neighbors in need!

We are now firmly in the second half of Doorstep's 55th Anniversary year, (June 1, 2021 – May 31, 2022)! If you haven't heard we are raising funds for our 55th Anniversary Fund, specifically to replace the 60+ year old HVAC system in our building! We received our original bid just after the beginning of COVID in our country, and our estimate was $150,000. Unfortunately, with all of the changes COVID has brought, we now need to raise at least $180,000!

Beginning February 16th and running through April 15th Doorstep has a Matching Funds Challenge for you to take advantage of, and to help Doorstep meet our goal!! We have a generous couple who has pledged $20,000 towards Doorstep's HVAC replacement fund. They understand this type of 'fundraising' is not perhaps the "tug at your heartstrings" type of need, but for a non-profit like Doorstep, who owns our building, it is very necessary!

Donate to Doorstep between February 16th ~ April 15th and for every $2 you donate, our matching funders will add $1 to that donation!

Help us turn $20,000 into $60,000 towards our 55th Anniversary HVAC Fund. Be a part of this exciting one-time, project specific ask to keep our building in good shape so we can continue providing emergency, basic needs services to your neighbors in need.

Make sure to note your donation as part of the 55th Anniversary, HVAC Matching Fund! As of 2/10/22 we have secured almost $93,500 towards the updated goal of $180,000. And, anything we raise over what is needed to replace the HVAC system, will go towards rent and utility assistance for those families and individuals who are struggling, and need a little help, and a hand up!

If you have already donated towards our special project fund, "Thank You"! Please keep in mind this is a new tax year, with another opportunity for you to help out, and have your donation matched!

Doorstep, Inc. is located at 1119 SW 10th, Topeka, KS 66604. You can also visit our website: www.DoorstepTopeka.org, and donate through PayPal. Make sure to note the HVAC fund on any donation you send for this challenge.

Abigail White: Joining Youth With A Mission Staff

I'm so excited to announce that I am officially on staff with Youth With A Mission!

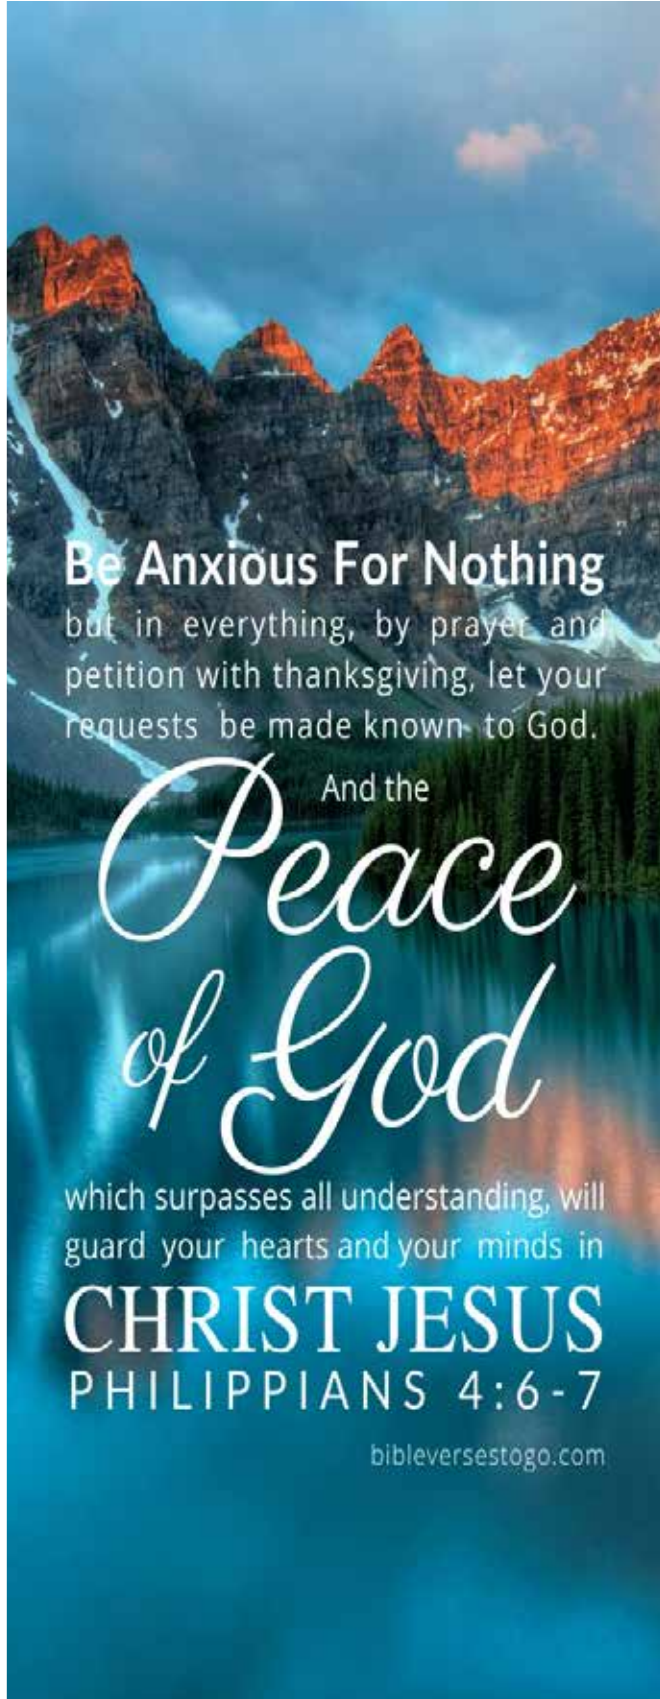

I want to inspire others to follow God into missions. I'll be moving to New Zealand in June to join staff with a commitment of three years. God has used YWAM to move and mold my heart over the past few years. I've watched people come to Christ. I've seen healing. I've grown in trusting the LORD and I've seen others grow as well. I'm overjoyed to be following God into missions full time and long term. I know this won't be an easy road, but I can't wait to see all the new works God is doing.

I want to thank everyone who has been walking this journey with me! As you know this isn't the beginning of the story, merely the beginning of a new chapter. I will forever count Central Park Christian Church as family and, just like family, we will never be truly apart. I know that we will continue to walk together and I don't have words to say how much that means. The next few months will be filled with preparation, conversations, and joy.

I'm excited to share the next few months with you as well as the next few years.

If you would like to partner with me financially or by committing to prayer I would love to answer any questions. You can contact me at 785-861-5882 or email me at hpwntr@gmail.com.
