

Servant Thoughts

Traditions are both good for us, and sometimes perhaps something that keeps us from being open to new ideas or new traditions. I'm sure you probably have heard the story of the new bride preparing a ham dinner for Easter. Her husband watches as she cuts off the ends of the ham and asks why. "That's how my mother and grandmother always prepared it," she offers, "I think it enhances the flavor." Later at dinner, with her mother and grandmother in attendance, she asks them about their unique preparation technique. Her mother responded, "Well that's the way mom always prepared it, so I didn't want to break the tradition." The grandmother looked at her daughter and granddaughter and laughed heartily. When she finally composed herself, she said, "It has nothing to do with flavor. I cut off both ends because that's the only way it fit into the pan I had."

During this month of April, we will have the opportunity to celebrate many traditions. Our gathering for Holy Week will include many traditions like favorite hymns, etc., but perhaps there might be some new things as well. One tradition that I am glad to see continue is our tradition of the Last Supper Drama, which we haven't had for a few years because of the pandemic. It's good to have it back! But I am also excited to see that this year the tradition continues because we have many new cast members who stepped up to replace former cast members who were ready to see a new generation continue this special tradition. So, it might look a little bit different, but the message will still be the same! As is the rest of our Holy Week, as we again celebrate the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. That is one tradition that will not change! By the way, I kind of like the end pieces of ham or beef!

In the service and love of Jesus,

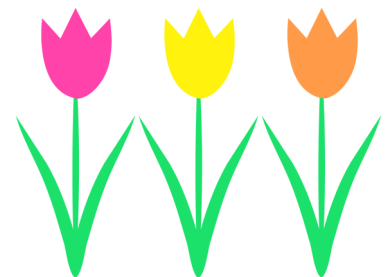

As an update to the congregation... at the February Elder's Meeting it was decided that during the summer we would have just one Sunday morning worship service. We will continue to have a Saturday night service, but between Memorial Day and Labor Day, we will have a 10:00 am Worship Service with a 9:00 am Bible Class/ Sunday School which will be intergenerational and be led by Pastor. On Memorial Day we won't be having the Bible Class/Sunday School. Our Fellowship time will begin at 8:45 am.
