Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my need.

Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:
that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of
their liberality.

abundance of their joy and their
deep poverty abounded in the riches of
their liberality.

2 Corinthians 8:1-2

For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing,
imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

2 Corinthians 8:3-4

For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their
ability, they were freely willing,
imploring us with much urgency that
we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

2 Corinthians 8:3-4

And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God.

2 Corinthians 8:5

But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your mindfulness for me has flourished again; though you surely were mindful, but you lacked opportunity.

Philippians 4:10

Not that I speak in regard to deficiency, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content:

Philippians 4:11

I know how to be humbled, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned the secret both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to be deficient.

Philippians 4:12

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:13

Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my affliction.

Philippians 4:17

Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.
