Ephesians 1:18-21

New International Version

18 I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, 19 and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength 20 he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, 21 far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.

New Living Translation

18 I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance.

19 I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power 20 that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. 21 Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but

Journey Group Questions

1. Ever had an "embarrassing episode" (like the one Ken Davis had) in a church gathering? If so, care to share it with the group?
2. How many of the points of the sermon can you as a group establish from just the main passage, Ephesians 1:18-21?
3. Review: what does the resurrection prove about Jesus?
4. What aspect of our salvation does Jesus' resurrection provide? What aspect does His death on the cross provide?
5. Can you as a group recite the Four Spiritual Laws? Can you give a biblical reference for each law? Have you ever used those in witnessing to someone? Do you have another resource you employ?
