JONAH

Part 2

The first major realization in Jonah's prayer of repentance is the futility of _____.

Repentance always begins in a note of _____.

Better to be united with God even in the belly of a fish than on dry land without Him! The real pit is _____, not a particular circumstance.

The second major realization in Jonah's prayer is the emptiness of _____.

When you turn to an idol, you _____ the grace that could be yours.

The third major realization in Jonah's prayer is _____ belongs to the Lord.

Seeing that Jesus was cast into the _____ for us gives us the motivation for the new kind of obedience.
