The Joy of the Lord

This month I am going to do something a little different. We spend a lot of time in this world and in our days inundated with heavy, heavy stuff. This world is good at making us sad, but that seems so contrary to what God wants for us.

This month I want to approach my article differently. We spend a lot of time being serious. Life is filled with serious. But I don't think that this is what life is all about. Scripture tells us in Galatians 5:22-23:

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

All of those can, in their own right, be tough to achieve at times, but one of those I strive for and try to engage daily. However, it is so hard to engage in this fruit of the spirit when life is kicking me, and those around me, in the face. It's tough to pursue it when people forget that it is there for the taking.

I don't want to leave you thinking that I believe life is full of nothing but fun and that we should never have bad days. I know many things in this life hurt. I know there is junk we go through. I do believe we can grieve, but I also do want to engage you today on the fruit that we can lack greatly in... Joy.

Scripture has a lot to say about the subject. In fact, it even tells us to identify with joy in times of trial and tribulation.

Romans 12:12 ESV

Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

James 1:2 ESV

Count it all joy, my brothers when you meet trials of various kinds.

Romans 15:13 ESV

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Philippians 4:4 ESV

Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, Rejoice.

I have had some crazy experiences over the years in ministry that have made me laugh. For that matter, some of these experiences have made others laugh also. I have learned that I have to laugh at those things, or my joy will be lacking. I even believe you can find some of those things in scripture.

I center this thought around a story that we find in Acts 20. A youth named Eutychus was sitting in an open window, listening to Paul preach. But Paul preached for so long that Eutychus fell asleep and fell out of the window! Thankfully, Paul stopped preaching, picked him up, and the boy was OK.

(Acts 20:8-10).

In that moment it must have been scary, but I sincerely believe it was something that Paul had to look back on and laugh. Can't you imagine some of the people sitting around after everything was okay and razzing Paul about his preaching? "Hey Paul, great message today. It sure was an eye-opening message!"

I want to share this reminder that we are allotted joy in our lives, and sometimes it can be found in the strangest places. If you are in search for joy, just know that the Lord is giving His blessing to you to find it!

Proverbs 17:22 ESV

A joyful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 ESV

Rejoice always...

Psalms 118:24 ESV

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

1 Thessalonians 2:20 ESV

For you are our glory and joy.

Today I want to leave you with this charge. Colossians 1:11-14...¹¹May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. ¹³He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Nehemiah 8:10...¹⁰Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

Swimming in the deep end,

- Derek

Why I Love Summer Camps

Many of us have meaningful, lifelong memories from going to camp as a youth. Summer camps helped form many of us into the dedicated, passionate Christians we are today. The lasting impact of spending a week devoted to one another and to Christ can't be found anywhere else. (Acts 2:42). There are many reasons why I get excited about summer and the time I get to spend with the youth.

One factor is what is commonly ABSENT at Camp: TVs, computers, video games, etc. There are literally some camps that can only get phone service in certain areas. It really is some of my greatest times, unplugged from the world. These distractions serve to busy the mind and keep youth from focusing on the deeper questions of life such as, "Why am I here?", "What will happen to me when I die?", "Does my life have meaning?". While occupied with fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind (Ephesians 2:3), young people have little time to ponder such questions. When these mind-occupying distractions are taken away, campers have the time to ponder the Word in a much deeper way than a once-a-week, 60-minute church experience allows. Once distractions are removed, campers find themselves surrounded by God's creation in an environment that turns their minds to Him and the eternal, and away from the world. It's a time to JUST GET AWAY!! Away from normal routines, away from distractions and away from the chaos of life. Youth tend to hear things in a new way, where time slows down, and allow God to speak to us.

Youth get a glimpse of what Godly love is all about. Many youth come from broken homes or grow up with less-than-ideal role models because one or both parents are unsaved, or weak and immature in their faith. As Paul encouraged others to follow his example as he imitated Christ (1 Corinthians 11:1), hopefully the youth will see the same in us leaders. Hopefully they see us as Godly mentors modeling the love of Christ, showing unconditional love, and modeling how a godly man or woman should behave.

Youth get to be exposed to the Word of God. Hebrews 4:12 tells us that the Bible is living and powerful. This repeated use of the Word of God over a week's time is very valuable in letting the Word dwell richly in the lives of the youth and volunteers (Colossians 3:16). Most youth come back on a "spiritual high" because they have tasted the greatness of God and His word. Spending hours hearing His word, worshiping through songs, and being encouraged throughout the days will change one's heart. It's time to develop their own faith. I truly believe it's our little glimpse into what Heaven will be like.

The youth also get to develop healthy, life-long Christian relationships. The youth are surrounded by some of the most caring, loving Christian people for an entire week. They make bonds, start trusting each other, and start to open up about who they really are, what struggles they are going through. There is a TRUST that starts occurring that you just can't get anywhere but at camp. They become lifelong friends and mentors that care, pray, and encourage one another.

The bottom line is, CAMP CHANGE LIVES!! Strongholds will be broken, hearts will be filled, and christ will be shared.

Thank you for your Support!

It's been such a blessing to be among family again! Central Park Christian Church has been and will forever be home. You have supported me in countless ways over the last few months. Participating in children's ministry was a gift you gave me. You supported me in bringing me on staff as an intern. You supported me with your prayers.

I want to thank you for walking with me. You have equipped me for the future. You made sure I knew that I was loved here. I know that as I leave, I won't be leaving here alone. I praise God for bringing us together.

a message from
OUR ELDERS

Greetings from the elders!

May is upon us. We see new life sprouting throughout the neighborhood and our city. God gives us reminders of His restoration and renewal every spring. The earth truly shouts His praises.

The elders have been busy working on a new pastoral position description. This position will be tasked with connecting our congregation to God and one another through intentional discipleship and fellowship. This is not replacing the outreach pastor position but is a completely new position with a brand-new job description. We are calling the position the Connections Pastor and will interview a candidate for the position in the very near future, if not by the time you read this. Please be in prayer for wisdom and obedience to God's lead in all we do.

As summer approaches, there are opportunities to connect with others as we are all out and about more. The youth and children will be out of school and attending camps. There are numerous opportunities to "go and make disciples" in and around Central Park Christian Church. Maybe it is having coffee with someone, praying with and for someone, or sponsoring a kid for camp. Whatever way you choose, do so with prayer and joy.

MAY DEACONESS

We are fully in to spring now, and the flowers, trees and grass will be adding color to our outside world again; hopefully, bringing some sunshine and enjoyment to a still unsteady world.

I'm sure we all thought more than two years into this pandemic that we would be "normal" again...if we didn't think it, we surely hoped! And, yet, here we are. As much as we would like to return to pre-COVID ways of providing services at Doorstep, we aren't there yet. But, we continue providing food, clothing, household items, rent, utilities, prescriptions, pet food, hygiene kits, diapers, dental and gas vouchers, and local bus tickets by appointment or via phone intake.

It would be wonderful to have an Annual Banquet and Quilt Drawing again, perhaps sometime this year we will feel comfortable having these events and celebrating our dedicated volunteers and Doorstep!

We will have Christmas in July focusing on specific donations, and our 3rd Summer Cash Bash with matching funds has already been secured!

Speaking of matching funds...our wonderful supporters and donors met the HVAC Match Challenge in less than 3 weeks' time! And, while that didn't get us all the way to the goal line...we have received additional funds, and pledges, that will get us to the $180,000 budget for the new HVAC system!! YAY! We have signed the contract to lock in prices, the equipment has been ordered, and we expect to start the project in mid-September. We cannot thank all of those who donated to this special project enough for your support of this need. We have been blown away by the generosity of so many who believe in the mission of Doorstep!

Also, Mark your calendars and save the date for Doorstep's 5th Annual Neighbor Helping Neighbor Walk/5K Run, Sunday, October 2nd at 2pm at Lake Shawnee. Plan to join us in getting some exercise around the lake, and raise funds for Doorstep this October.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Time To CELEBRATE
18 years!

On Palm Sunday, April 10th, CPCC family members gathered together in the fellowship hall to celebrate 18 years of service to the central park community. A great time was had by all.

Special thanks to Sherry Webb for coordinating the dinner and to Jason and Melissa Vinsonhaler, Linda Bohlender, Sue and Stacy Spilker, Cyndie Rexer, Suzette Shields and Jenni Lewis who assisted with decorating, set up, clean up and other duties to make this event a success!

ON A MISSION

PAKISTAN:

Preparing for Opposition

In Pakistan, Christians are relegated to the lowest status in society. They have the worst jobs, have little opportunity for education and are at continual risk of harassment by Muslim coworkers. Unfortunately, the children in Christian families are affected no less than their parents.

“My father is a laborer,” said Kanwal, a seventh grade girl in a Pakistani village. “He works in the fields or sometimes as a helper to the mason, and on some days he has no work. My mother works as a servant in rich people’s homes. My parents are poor, and they cannot buy me books to read. I always get used books from other kids.”

Front-line workers recently gave Kanwal a children’s Bible in the Urdu language. “I love reading the children’s Bible every day before sleeping,” she said. “I also read stories from the Bible to my parents, and they are very happy. I pray that all kids in my country get this Bible so they can learn about Jesus.”

Kanwal will grow up knowing that she is loved and valued by her Creator even though the society around her tells her she is worth nothing. Her Bible will also prepare her for the persecution she is likely to face as a follower of Christ.

EAGLE’S NEST NEWS

“Meet “Sammy”

Sammy was found at the end November tossed aside in a plastic bag on the side of the river, left for dead. A passerby found him and called the authorities. He was barely 3 lbs and was immediately placed in the NICU at the National hospital. They weren’t sure he would make it. Felis was given permission to go visit him. The picture to the left was the first visit and she was amazed at how his heart started beating faster and he even smiled at her.

He couldn’t regulate his own body temperature, had pneumonia and a very contagious bacterial infection. After 5 weeks in the hospital, he finally reached 4 lbs, was thriving and was able to leave the hospital.

Today he is healthy and one of the happiest babies we have ever had. He recently was given adoptability by the judge, which means he won’t be with us very much longer and he will be matched with an adoptive family soon.

We are so happy for this outcome.

John 14:18-20 MSG

I will not leave you orphaned. I’m coming back. In just a little while the world will no longer see me, but you’re going to see me because I am alive and you’re about to come alive. At that moment you will know absolutely that I’m in my Father, and you’re in me, and I’m in you.

And this is why Eagle’s Nest exists!

We couldn’t continue to serve the Guatemalan children, employees and community without you all!
