Sermon Notes

THE RESURRECTION CHANGES EVERYTHING

“The Story God is Telling”

Luke 24:13-35

1. Israel’s History: A Story in Search of _____

He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast (Luke 24:17 NIV).

These disciples were “downcast” because they were in the _____.

“... but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel” (Luke 24:21 NIV).

They still needed “_____,” which in their language was a sort of code-word for the _____.

2. Telling the Story _____

Jesus explained to the two disciples that the promised deliverance would come not _____ suffering but _____ suffering.

“Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?” (Luke 24:32 NIV).

3. A Remarkable _____

An earlier Passover when Jesus was a young boy: “Did you not know that I must be about My Father’s business?” (Luke 2:49b NKJV).

Comparisons to the story of the Fall in Genesis 3.

When Jesus takes the bread and blesses it, “their eyes were opened, and they recognized him.”

This phrase is almost exactly the same as Genesis 3:7, “their eyes were opened, and they realized they were naked.”

Luke wants us to see that the story of the Fall—the original Exile—has now been _____.

4. Living the Story Today

Get in the _____.

The resurrection is about the _____ starting now.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! (2 Corinthians 5:17 NIV).

We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life (Romans 6:4 NIV).

Mother’s Day Slideshow

Help us celebrate moms with a special photo slideshow on Mother’s Day. If your mother’s photo was not included in last year’s slideshow, please email us one (office@hoodview.church) or bring it to the office and we can scan it for you. Deadline for submissions is this Wednesday. All women present next Sunday will receive a special token of our appreciation and love!
