Jesus Prepares to Leave and Gives A New Command

³¹ When Judas was gone, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man receives his glory. And God receives glory through him. ³² If God receives glory through him, then God will give glory to the Son through himself. And God will give him glory quickly." ³³ Jesus said, "My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me. And what I told the Jews, I tell you now: Where I am going you cannot come. ³⁴ "I give you a new command: Love each other. You must love each other as I have loved you. ³⁵ All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other."

Children's Moment: Characteristics of a Christian

Written by Nathaniel Vissia, ©2022 by rfour.org. Adapted for use with permission.

This morning, I'd like to explain a fun and simple exercise, but first, I want you to show me the exercise that you think I'm going to teach you. So...think about different exercises that you know and then think about which one you think I'm going to teach you. When I say "Go" – I'll give you 10 seconds to show me the exercise you think I'll teach you. We'll see how close your guess is to my actual exercise. Any questions? Ok, I think we're ready to do this. Go ahead and stand up and have someone count to 10 for you while you show the exercise that you think I am going to show you. Ready? Set? Go!

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1!

Yay! Well done! Thank you for doing that! That was great! I think your exercise moves are more fun than mine. The exercise I was going to show you was jogging in place. The way to do that is to stand in one spot. Then, you bring one knee up, nice and high. Then you bring it down while you bring the other knee up. Then you do it faster and faster until you're "running in place."

So, were you able to show others what I was going to teach you before I told you the move? No, not really... Do you think that if I had told/showed you FIRST, then you would've been better able to show others what my exercise move was? Yes, I think so too.

In today's scripture story, Jesus is teaching his disciples a new rule. He tells them to, "Love one another as I have loved you." A very important thing about this rule is that Jesus was already living that rule. He had already shown his disciples how to love one another because he had already been loving them. And, because Jesus loved first, then the disciples were able to see and know what Jesus meant when he said, "As I have loved you." Here are some of the loving actions that Jesus did for his disciples: 1) He invited them to be his students and wanted to spend time with them. 2) He shared stories with them to help them better understand God. 3) He showed them how to how to talk and listen to God (what we call praying).

"All will know you are My disciples if you love one another."

And you know what?

If we read the stories about Jesus, then we, too, can see these same actions that Jesus showed his disciples. In this way, Jesus shows us how to be his students. And, because we can see how Jesus showed his love toward his disciples, then we can see how we are to love one another, just like Jesus loved his disciples.

As Jesus disciples, then, because Jesus loved us first, we know how to love others like Jesus loved us. And that’s the good news for today.

Let Us Pray: This is a repeat-after-one-another prayer. One person reads the plain line and everyone else reads the bold line. If you are alone, simply pray the bolded lines.

Dear God,
Dear God,

Thank you for Jesus...
Thank you for Jesus...

...who shows your love...
...who shows your love...

...to his disciples...
...to his disciples...

...so that they and we can see...
...so that they and we can see...

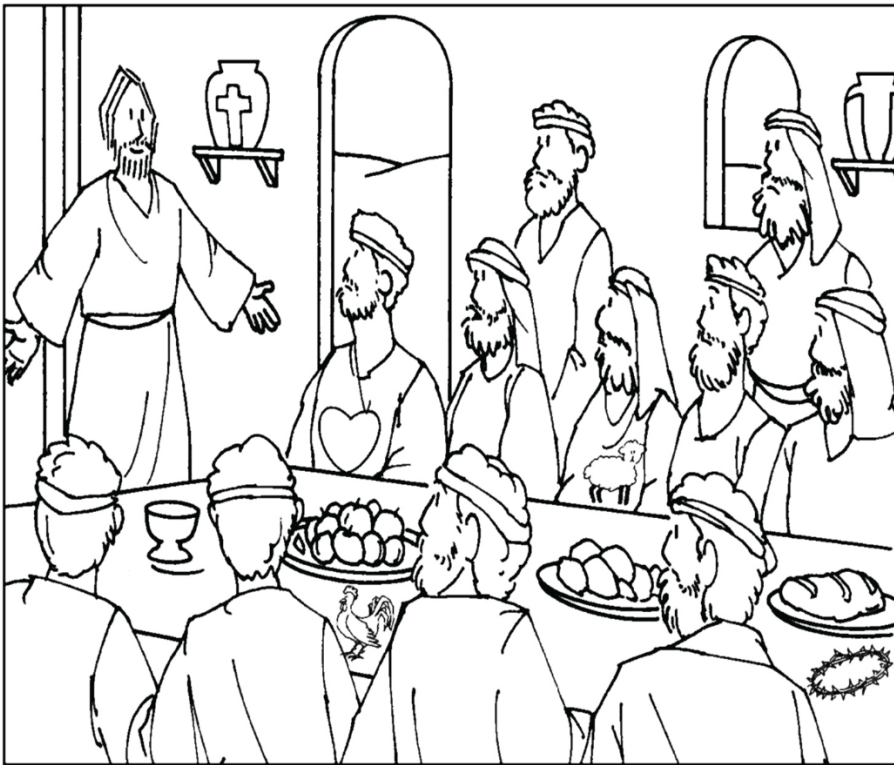

...how to then share your love with others.
...how to then share your love with others.

Thank you and Amen.
Thank you and Amen.
