LOTS HAPPENING AND LOTS TO DO

Col. 3:23 “Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men,”

5TH SUNDAY CONTRIBUTION 5-29 – We have had some wonderful changes in our building and grounds over the years. Our re-paved parking lot, the beautification islands, new lighting outside for security, the new lighting in the CSC with more to come. Hope you have made plans for giving today.

FRIENDS & FAMILY DAY ON THE HORIZON – Hope you will mark your calendar for our June 5th Friends and Family Day. It is not only a great opportunity for you to invite someone to services; also we get to spend time together in a meal and fellowship.

SUMMER CHURCH CAMPS – The gift for your child to go free is due to what camp meant to the folks who make the donation. It is hard to put into words what Summer Church Camp means. Yes there is fun, laughter, competition, and making new friends, but there is more. There is a closeness you develop with the counselors and other campers that bring tears by the end of the week. There is the nightly devo when you feel the presence of God. You hear the Lord in the voices of fellow campers as you sing. The messages from counselors not many years removed from you show a dedication to Jesus Christ you will want to emulate. We hope each of you will consider finding time to attend this summer.

PRIMETIMERS CLASS – Wednesday 10 AM we want to invite anyone to come to our class. During summer we have some teachers to join our class please consider this your personal invitation. We are currently in a book called “Making Things Right When Things Go Wrong.” It is an excellent study for any age. Come join

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Wednesday Night Bible Study

Adam grew up in the church. His parents were both Christians from the day he was born. He attended Sunday Bible class, his family went to worship God on Sunday mornings, Sunday nights, and then on Wednesday nights. They were a very happy Christian family. Then something happened. Adam started school and his mother started working. Homework, housework, cooking, sleeping, vacation, out-of-town visitors, television, and school activities all took over. It started with Adam and his parents missing Wednesday nights because "after all, the Bible doesn't say we have to attend on Wednesday nights." Then when Adam entered Junior High, sports and homework took over and they missed an occasional Sunday night. Soon, they were missing every Sunday night. They were just too busy.

Adam's mother had too much to do. She couldn't get ready with all the kids to get ready also. Adam's dad came up with hundreds of excuses of why he didn't feel like going to worship God. "After all, Sunday morning is enough for anyone." At least that's what Adam's parents thought.

Today Adam is in his 20's and never even goes to church. He stays home and watches TV or sleeps. He works late on Wednesday night and has too many things going on Sunday. Today, Adam is lost! His parents will have to live with that throughout eternity!

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matthew 6:33).
