LOTS HAPPENING AND LOTS TO DO

Col. 3:23 "Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men,"

PREPARING FOR WHAT LIES AHEAD – As the church at Lomax has new beginnings just around the corner I want to challenge you to be involved. Many times it is easy to sit back and wait for someone else to step forward. Begin with the most obvious

Prayer. Pray every day for success. Success will require a partnership. Do not overlook our part as a Church to be positive and be all we can be to make it work. Just like in a marriage we must both be committed. If we reach across the aisle so to speak, we know half of the success will happen. Second do your part, whatever that might be lending a hand, making calls, communicate, and above all love each other. John 13:34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another."

PRIMETIMERS SCHEDULE – The new schedule is in foyer. We are excited for the 6-16 FFF Day. Be sure and sign up! Lots of opportunities each month for us to be together and remember we have WPT class Wednesday 10AM.

VBS'S – We have some fun opportunities this summer note the VBS's listed in bulletin under Up Coming Events. The bus will be traveling to the Linden VBS. It is full; if you missed signing up follow them over. Our VBS is June 19-22, if you are not participating see Brice or Saul to find an opportunity to help.

FAMILY MEAL NIGHT JUNE 8th – I just recently heard of a member using this as an opportunity to introduce folks to our Wednesday classes. What a great idea a time we can gather for fellowship and then attend Wednesday class.

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION:

Who said, "What I have written, I have written"? In what connection?
(answer next week)

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Who Cares?

David once lamented, “no man cared for my soul” (Psalm 142:4). Have you ever felt that way? Do you think anyone really cares? There are those who are greatly concerned about you.

Christians care. The Bible says we are “to do good unto all men” (Galatians 6:10). To love our fellow man with an eye to being a good neighbor is an ideal much needed in a day when loneliness is the great problem of many (Matthew 22:32-39; Luke 10:29-37).

Preachers especially care! Paul said that Timothy cared for others (Philippians 2:20). Paul himself was a caring preacher of tender sympathies (1 Thessalonians 2:7,8).

God cares most of all! With unbounded love He sent His Son to die for you (John 3:16; Romans 5:8). 1 Peter 5:7 says, “he careth for you.”

Maybe the real question isn't “Who cares?” but “Do you care?” The best way to exercise care for your eternal wellbeing is to trust and obey God (Acts 16:30-34). Today, be thankful that God and His people care.

Promises to Make to Your Child

There are some very interesting promises that God, as our heavenly Father, has made to each of us. And since He has made such promises to us, we as parents ought to use them as an example of the promises we should make to our children all through their lives.

I promise to be there for you. God promised Jacob to always be with him (Genesis 28:15). That promise continues to all Christians today (Matthew 28:20). We should promise to always give our children the emotional support they need.

I promise to comfort you when you need it. God has promised comfort to His children (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). We should always be available when our children need a shoulder to cry on, an arm to lean on, or a heart to tug on.

I promise to love you unconditionally. God loved us even while we were still sinners (Romans 5:8). Our children must always know that we love them regardless of what happens in their life.

I promise to listen to you. One of the great things about God is that He is always willing for us to talk to Him (Psalm 34:15). We should be no less as a parent. We should always want to hear what our children have to say. Their words and opinions must be important to us.

I promise to forgive you. When God makes such a promise, He not only forgives the sin, He remembers it no more (Jeremiah 31:34). Our children need to know that when they come admitting their mistakes, we will always be there with open hearts and arms to forgive anything and everything.

Make and keep these promises to your children and you will always have a godly home.
