*Covenant is an accepting, welcoming community
sharing the glory of God's love with all.*

From our pastor

"You are dust, and to dust you shall return." Genesis 3:19

Today is Ash Wednesday, and the first day of Lent. Often Ash Wednesday is understood as a day of repentance, sorrow, and sacrifice. Those all have their place. This month marks 2 years of pandemic restrictions. Many of those restrictions are currently being lifted, which for many is a reason to celebrate. But it also brings to mind everything that we have lost over the past 2 years. Nearly 1 million Americans have died of COVID. Children have been separated from teachers and friends. Countless people have suffered from the isolation. The stress and frustration have brought out some of our worst impulses. On Ash Wednesday 2022, there is reason for repentance and sorrow, and we have all sacrificed. There is another angle to Ash Wednesday that isn't about sin, but limitation. The reminder that we are dust is a reminder that our life and our time is limited, and that's how God intends it. When we seek to live without limits, we seek to be something other than human, and being human is a glorious gift. On this both scripture and science agree: we are made of dust. The elements that make up our human bodies come from the stars, and from that stardust we emerge. This is both awe inspiring and humbling. Our bodies are connected to a cosmic time frame so vast that it seems eternal. A single human lifespan whether it last a few minutes or over a hundred years is but a blip on the cosmic radar screen. Yet within that blip are opportunities to love and be loved, to grieve and rejoice together, for we are made for one another by the God who is love. If you are able to come to the service tonight in person or virtually, I pray that you are able to embrace the gift of your life, in all its glorious limitations. You are dust, and to dust you shall return, and that is a humbling and glorious thing.

One Struggle to Love,

The Jean A. Mortland Memorial Scholarship

The Jean A. Mortland Scholarship was established in 2007 in memory of Jean A. Mortland because of her appreciation for excellent music and advocacy for higher education. Jean was a member of Covenant for over 40 years and taught at Capital University Law School. Her faith was service oriented and socially active, and her leadership at Covenant was a gift of intellect, passion, and strength. She left a substantial bequest to us which was supplemented by donations made in her memory. Her family wanted the fund to reflect her love of music, higher education, and the Christian faith. The recipient is selected by the Worship and Arts Commission. Applicants should be pursuing a college or graduate degree in music or theology, a member of Covenant or associated closely in some manner and demonstrate a commitment to excellence in their vocation. Also considered are overall GPA, financial need, and written recommendations. The candidate must be enrolled in the institution of higher learning to which the gift will be directed. Deadline is April 30. For information and an application form, contact Ingrid Smith, 614-451-6677.

HM3 UPDATE – HOGE'S, MUSIC, MESSAGE, MEAL

Hoge Presbyterian Church offers the HM3 program every Saturday for its community in Franklinton including Music, Message, and a Meal. Area churches assist with the Meal, and Covenant creates and serves a hot, home-made meal every 3rd Saturday. Servers and guests are asked to wear masks when not eating.

Current attendance at HM3 leads us to bring enough for 50 meals. We need groups (or individuals) to step forward to serve.

· Groups have signed up to serve in the months of March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, and December of 2022... THANK YOU!

· If you or your kids would like to help out during one of those 3rd Saturdays where a group already is signed up, go ahead and contact that groups' leader; we'll bet they would LOVE to include you on the team! You can find the leader's name on the website, or you can ask Cathy Levy, and she'll connect you up.

· Groups or individuals may still sign up for November 19.

· Remember that if you don't want to serve, you can cook at your home to contribute, and if you don't want to cook, you can be a server at Hoge from 4pm to 7pm on a 3rd Saturday. Additionally, if your group is lacking servers (which is understandable with Omicron concerns), let Cathy know; she has contacts for volunteers who can cover this role. Sign up your group or as an individual to get involved.

Please sign up and/or learn more through this tool: <https://bitly.com/CovenantHM3SignUp> or by contacting Cathy Levy (send an email to covenant@covenantpcusa.org and in the subject line type HM3/Levy). Your expenses incurred in cooking may be reimbursed through our Financial Administrator, Ingrid Smith. By splitting up the work, it's easy, and many of us can help our neighbors with life-giving food offered with open hearts.

PRAYER CHAIN

Contact Laurie Johnson (lauriejohnson@covenantpcusa.org) if you would like to join the members and friends of Covenant who pray for those requesting our prayers. To submit a prayer chain request, please send an email to covenant@covenantpcusa.org and in the subject line type Prayer Chain. Note that the person for whom prayers are requested must give permission.
