Dear Church Family,

The Lord bless you today as we worship Him. I trust you and your family are well and am praying you will be encouraged and strengthened through our time together. As we worship the Lord, let's take time to thank Him for all He has done on our behalf.

I trust you enjoyed Wednesday night as the student choir from Alabama blessed us with a Christ-centered presentation in music. What a wonderful time of worship it was! I know many of you were blessed. Let's continue to pray for them as they travel home.

On another note, remember that our annual business meeting will be tonight. Let's be in prayer for wisdom as we seek the Lord's leading. I appreciate all the work that has been done to gather information so we can make wise decisions regarding the Lord's direction for the church. Also, remember that on Wednesday nights over the summer, Bill Wright will be leading a time spent in the Word and in prayer. Make sure you read through the bulletin for other upcoming summer plans.

I hope you have a wonderful day in Christ! Let's continue in prayer and stay focused on the Lord. God is good and is at work all around. Thank you for your continued prayers and service.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Erik
