Hopeful Pantry Of Hope Our pantry continues to provide food support to our neighbors every day. So thanks to your donations. Donations can come in the form of food items left on our cart in the entry hall or monetary donations.

We use those funds to seek out best deals at local stores and Master Provisions. Thank you for your support!

NATIVITY COSTUME UPDATE

It is time to repair and replace some of our costumes used in the Live Nativity. I'm looking for a small crew to repair and possibly sew up some new costumes. I am also looking for a Thrivent card to help cover the cost of materials/supplies. Let Barb Fields know if you can help out.

LWR has already sent health kits, baby kits, school kits and quilts to those who have been affected by the war in Ukraine. Recently, 80 quilts and 32 health kits from Hopeful were delivered to the LWR warehouse in Maryland. These kits and quilts, made by your hands, will be processed and prepared for shipment to our neighbors in need throughout the world. Quilts made at Hopeful in recent years were included in a shipment to Peru in early March. LWR continues to assist families who have fled turmoil in Venezuela and reestablished their lives in Peru. More information about the work of Lutheran World Relief can be found at LWR.org.
