God desires for us to be... _____ .

Small Group Questions

1. Take a few minutes to be with God.

Whatever that might look like for your group:

- Spend some time in prayer with your group.
- Integrate silence into your group for a few minutes.
- Journal for 5-10 minutes.
- Something else that I haven't mentioned.

2. Getting Into the Questions

- What are your initial reflections on the sermon? How did you find it helpful, eye-opening, or exciting?
- What are your reflections on the word “transformed” and how it pertains to our faith?
- Was there something new that you learned or was the sermon a helpful reminder in our call to be “transformed”?

3. Scripture (Romans 12:1-2)

- What does it mean to “offer your bodies as a living sacrifice” in Romans 12:1?
- How is this offering of ourselves as a living sacrifice true and proper worship?

- What is the pattern of this world? What does it mean to renew your mind? How does that keep us from conforming to the pattern of this world?
- What does it mean to “test and approve” God’s will?

4. Moving Forward

- How can transformation and the renewing of our mind give us hope?
- Where are you feeling led to continue transforming in your life? In other words, how are you being led to grow/mature?
- In what ways do you feel transformation is complicated? In what ways do you feel transformation is simple?

5. Prayer

Close in prayer over the topic.
