Finance Update

In the coming weeks a financial overview will be part of the weekly newsletter with more detailed information available on our website. It's important to us that you know exactly where and how your contributions to Trinity are being used.

There is a bulletin board at the end of the office hallway used to post all of the "business" of the church. You can always check there for financial information, the most current Leadership Team Meeting Minutes and any other current update relating to the business side of the church.
