“Train people in the truth of Christ for prayerful outreach to the community.”

Dear Friends,

Welcome to St Peters, it is our prayer you may be encouraged by the Word of God and our time of worship together. If you are new or visiting, we would love for you to fill in a visitor's card so we can keep in contact.

In relation to Holy Communion, after consultation we will be offering both the common cup and individual cups due to the ongoing level of Covid in the community. This has been agreed to by the Archbishop.

After the 9:30 service today is our Annual Meeting of Parishioners. The reports are available on the back table or a pdf can be emailed to you, so if you can please stay for the meeting.

God bless,

Neil
Senior Minister.

WOW

Come and enjoy fellowship as we conclude our study of the book of Ruth, sing and pray together. All while enjoying morning tea or coffee with delicious cake!

9:30am to 11:30am, in the church building.

Saturday 9 July (Ruth 4)

Sharon Hird and Terri Finkelstein will take us on a journey to understand, in a fresh way, how the provision and care of our God is evident in the everyday lives of His people as revealed in the book of Ruth in the Old Testament. We will see how this providence is shown pre-eminently in the person of our Kinsman-Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ, and how we can be confident of His care and guidance as we, like Ruth, seek " the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge". Ruth 2:12
