

“Final Words”

Text: John 21:18-25

Scripture reading: II Peter 1

I. Glorify the Lord! – vv. 18-19a

Application:

1) Believers view _____ -II Pet. 1:2-4

2) Believers leave _____ - I Pet. 5:6-7

3) Believers view _____ - II Pet. 1:13-15

II. Follow the Lord! – vv. 19b-23

Application:

1) A life of _____ - I Pet. 1:21

2) A life of _____ - I Pet. 4:10-11

3) A life of _____ - Gal. 6:4-5

III. Declare the Lord! – vv. 24-25

Application:

1) We have faithful _____ - Heb. 12:1

2) We are to be faithful _____

3) We have a faithful _____

“...It is an unspeakable consolation to remember, that our whole future is known and fore-arranged by Christ. There is no such thing as luck, chance, or accident, in the journey of our life. Everything from beginning to end is foreseen, -arranged by One who is too wise to err, and too loving to do us harm.”

– Bishop J. C. Ryle

SERMON QUOTES:

J. C. Ryle writing on John 21:25,

“It would not be good for the world to have more. The human mind, like the body can only digest a certain quantity. ...If more had been recorded they would have been only thrown away. There is enough to make every unbeliever without excuse, enough to show every inquirer the way to heaven, enough to satisfy the heart of every honest believer, enough to glorify God. ...The mind of all mankind would not appreciate more about Christ, if more had been written. There is enough and to spare.”