

Orangewood Presbyterian Church

July 3, 2022

4th Sunday after Pentecost

A river of God's love flowing into the dry places of our communities

- Jesus Christ is already at work in our communities; we seek to join that work.
- Our communities are wherever God plants us: Monday through Saturday—as well as Sunday.
- We create servant relationships with our communities, to become better disciples of Jesus Christ.

On the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing.

Ezekiel 47:12

Prayer of Confession

O God of hope and healing,
we confess that our lives are often marked by brokenness and sin.
We turn to you in the hope that your hand will pass over us and we will be healed.
Yet in our desire for salvation,
we prefer healing that comes in our own way and on our own terms.
When you do not respond according to our expectations,
we turn away in anger and disappointment.
Have mercy on us when we grow impatient with your timing,
desiring our own.
Grant us the humility to receive the words of the humble and lowly.
Open our ears to the counsel of the servants you send us,
so that we may be guided into your path of healing.
Make us whole we pray.
Wash us and make us clean.
And grant us faith beyond all fear,
so that we may be clothed with your joy
and give you thanks forever. Amen.

(moment of silence)

Leader: Lord, hear our prayer.

and to the Holy Ghost;

Amen, amen.
