Jesus Is Calling Today

When you are feeling overwhelmed by your circumstances, take time to listen to Me. Hear Me saying, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

Listen to Me when you're feeling stressed requires discipline and trust. Your racing thoughts make it hard to hear My gentle whisper. Ask the Holy Spirit to calm your mind so that you can hear My voice. Remember that I - the prince of Peace - am with you at all times.

I am not only with you; I am also in your circumstances. Moreover, I am in control of everything that happens to you. Although I am never the author of evil, I am fully able to use bad things for good. This does not remove your suffering, but it does redeem it—infusing it with meaning. So if you are in a storm of difficulties, I say to you, "Take courage, it is I". Search for signs of My abiding Presence in your current situation. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

Jesus Is Calling Today

Your life can be good even when many things are not going as you would like. You yearn to feel more in control of your life, but this is not My way for you. I want you to learn to relax more in My sovereignty, receiving each day as a good gift from Me—no matter what it contains. Remember that you are not responsible for things beyond your control. Accept the limitation of being a finite person and keep running toward Me. Cease striving and know that I am God. Awareness of My Face shining upon you can instill Joy into your most difficult day.

Let Me guide you step by step through this day. Because you are My follower, you live in the midst of fierce spiritual battles. Even your most routine day will have some minor spiritual skirmishes. So be on the alert as you follow Me along your life-path. Use your shield of faith to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Recognize and reject the demonic lies that assault you day and night. Rest in the truth of who you really are: My beloved child in whom I delight.

comes from faithfulness. Day after day, month after month, year after year as we learn and apply what God tells us, we become more and more people of the Word. There is always more to learn, no matter how long we have been saved, no matter how long we study, and no matter how long we may have taught or preached. A person who has been a Christian for decades needs the Bible just as much as one who has just been saved. We should never allow ourselves to become casual about this great treasure God has given us.

Only if our hearts and minds are filled with the Word of God will our speaking, teaching, and singing be filled with the

Closing Prayer

And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Colossians 3:14-17

The Bible is not just something we read and hear on Sundays. It is the Word of God, and it must be a central part of our lives. It should fill not just our hearts and minds, but our mouths as well. The Bible should be on display in our speaking, our teaching, and even our singing. Those who know us should be aware that we are students of the Scriptures. This does not happen by accident or by chance. It requires us to make a commitment to know the Bible as we should and then to follow through with it. "For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments" (Ezra 7:10).

There are no shortcuts or quick paths to the mastery of the Word of God. It only
