DB's Dabbling's

GPS Class Returns This Fall

Our Topic will be “Family Communication”

We will take our discussions from Topics in Romans 12 – 15

Here are some of the topics:

Family Communication comes from a relationship of _____.

- Committed Sacrifice
- Functioning Gifts
- Sincere Love
- Honorable Devotion
- Zealous Service
- Joyful Hope
- Patient Endurance
- Faithful Prayer
- Gracious Sharing
- Practical Hospitality
- Positive Blessing
- Daily Empathy
- Harmonious Flow
- Peace Making
- Unlimited Forgiveness
- Constant Kindness

These principles apply to all families, no matter the background or circumstances of the family, children or no children, ages of children, ages of parents and grandparents. All families need these communication relationships – even church families. From these principles we will discuss how to resolve conflicts and prevent them. We will discuss reconciliation and restoration of broken family relationships. And we will also discuss how we can be a better support system for other families. We would love to have you join us, starting August 21.

From Hughbert Collier, "The subject of this Fall's auditorium class will be Romans, probably the most studied and quoted portion of the New Testament. An understanding of the historical situation of Rome at the time Paul wrote the letter, plus an appreciation of the apostle's writing style, will provide fresh insights for our reading Romans, clear up long-standing misinterpretations of some passages and let us better apply its message to us today."
