The Preparation for Worship

Prelude

Let us prepare ourselves for worship. Use this time for silent prayer and meditation on the Word. "O Lord, who never fails to help and govern them whom You bring up in Your steadfast fear and love; Keep us, we beseech You, under the protection of Your good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of Your holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

*The Call to Worship

Psalm 47:2,4,5,6

Leader: The Lord Most High is to be feared, a great King over all the earth. He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom He loves. God has ascended with a shout, the Lord, with the sound of a trumpet.

All: Sing praises to God, sing praises; Sing praises to our King with a skillful Psalm.

Leader: Let us worship God!

Confession of Sin

The Strasbourg Liturgy

Leader: Make confession to God the Lord, and let everyone acknowledge with me his sin and iniquity.

All: Almighty, eternal God and Father, we confess and acknowledge unto thee that we were conceived in unrighteousness and are full of sin and transgression all our life. We do not fully believe thy Word nor follow thy holy commandments. Remember thy goodness, we beseech thee, and for thy Name's sake be gracious unto us, and forgive us our iniquity which, alas, is great. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

I Timothy 1:15

Leader: This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

All: Amen.

Westminster Shorter Catechism #107: What does the conclusion of the Lord's prayer teach us? The conclusion of the Lord's prayer (for yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever) teaches us to be encouraged only by God in our prayers and to praise Him by acknowledging that kingdom, power, and glory are His. To show that we want to be heard and have confidence that we are, we say Amen.

O Church Arise

O Church, arise, and put your armor on; Hear the call of Christ our Captain; For now the weak can say that they are strong in the strength that God has given. With shield of faith and belt of Truth, we'll stand against the devil's lies; An army bold, whose battle cry is love, reaching out to those in darkness.

Our call to war, to love the captive soul, but to rage against the captor; And with the sword that makes the wounded whole, we will fight with faith and valor. When faced with trials on e'ry side, we know the outcome is secure; And Christ will have the prize for which He died; an inheritance of nations.

Come, see the cross where love and mercy meet, As the Son of God is stricken; Then see His foes lie crushed beneath His feet, for the Conqueror has risen! And as the stone is rolled away and Christ emerges from the grave, this victory march continues till the day every eye and heart shall see Him.

So Spirit, come, put strength in ev'ry stride. Give grace for ev'ry hurdle, That we may run with faith to win the prize, of a servant good and faithful. As saints of old still line the way, retelling triumphs of His grace, We hear their calls and hunger for the day when with Christ we stand in glory.
