

The End. Jesus Wins.

A black and white photograph capturing the lower legs and hooves of a horse in motion. The horse is running on a dirt path, and its hooves are kicking up a large cloud of dust and dirt. The background is a bright, hazy sky. The overall mood is one of power and speed.

What did / do they expect?

- Regather Israel and renew worship on Zion! – Ps 2
- He will forcibly rule the World in Peace – Is 9
- Only 1 God and 1 truth! Righteousness reigns

The End. Jesus Wins.

In regards to the land that God has promised Israel, Genesis 15:18 declares to Abraham, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates." God later confirms this promise to Abraham's son Isaac and Isaac's son Jacob (whose name was later changed to Israel). When the Israelites were about to invade the Promised Land, God reiterated the land promise, as recorded in Joshua 1:4, "Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the great river, the Euphrates—all the Hittite country—to the Great Sea on the west."

According to Genesis 15:18 and Joshua 1:4, the land God gave to Israel included everything from the Nile River in Egypt to Lebanon (south to north) and everything from the Mediterranean Sea to the Euphrates River (west to east). All of the land modern Israel currently possesses, plus all of the land of the Palestinians (the West Bank and Gaza), plus some of Egypt and Syria, plus all of Jordan, plus some of Saudi Arabia and Iraq. Israel currently possesses only a fraction of the land God has promised.

And He will judge between the nations, and will mediated for many peoples, and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning knives. Nation will not lift up a sword against nation, and never again will they learn war. – Isa 2:4

And He will judge between many peoples and render decisions for mighty, distant nations. Then they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift a sword against nation, and never again will they train for war. – Mic 4-3
