

The End. Jesus Wins.

A black and white photograph capturing the lower legs and hooves of a horse as it gallops. The horse is kicking up a thick, billowing cloud of dust and dirt from the ground. The background is a bright, hazy sky, and the foreground shows sparse, dry vegetation on a dirt path.

The End. Jesus Wins.

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

This sinful world will be destroyed,

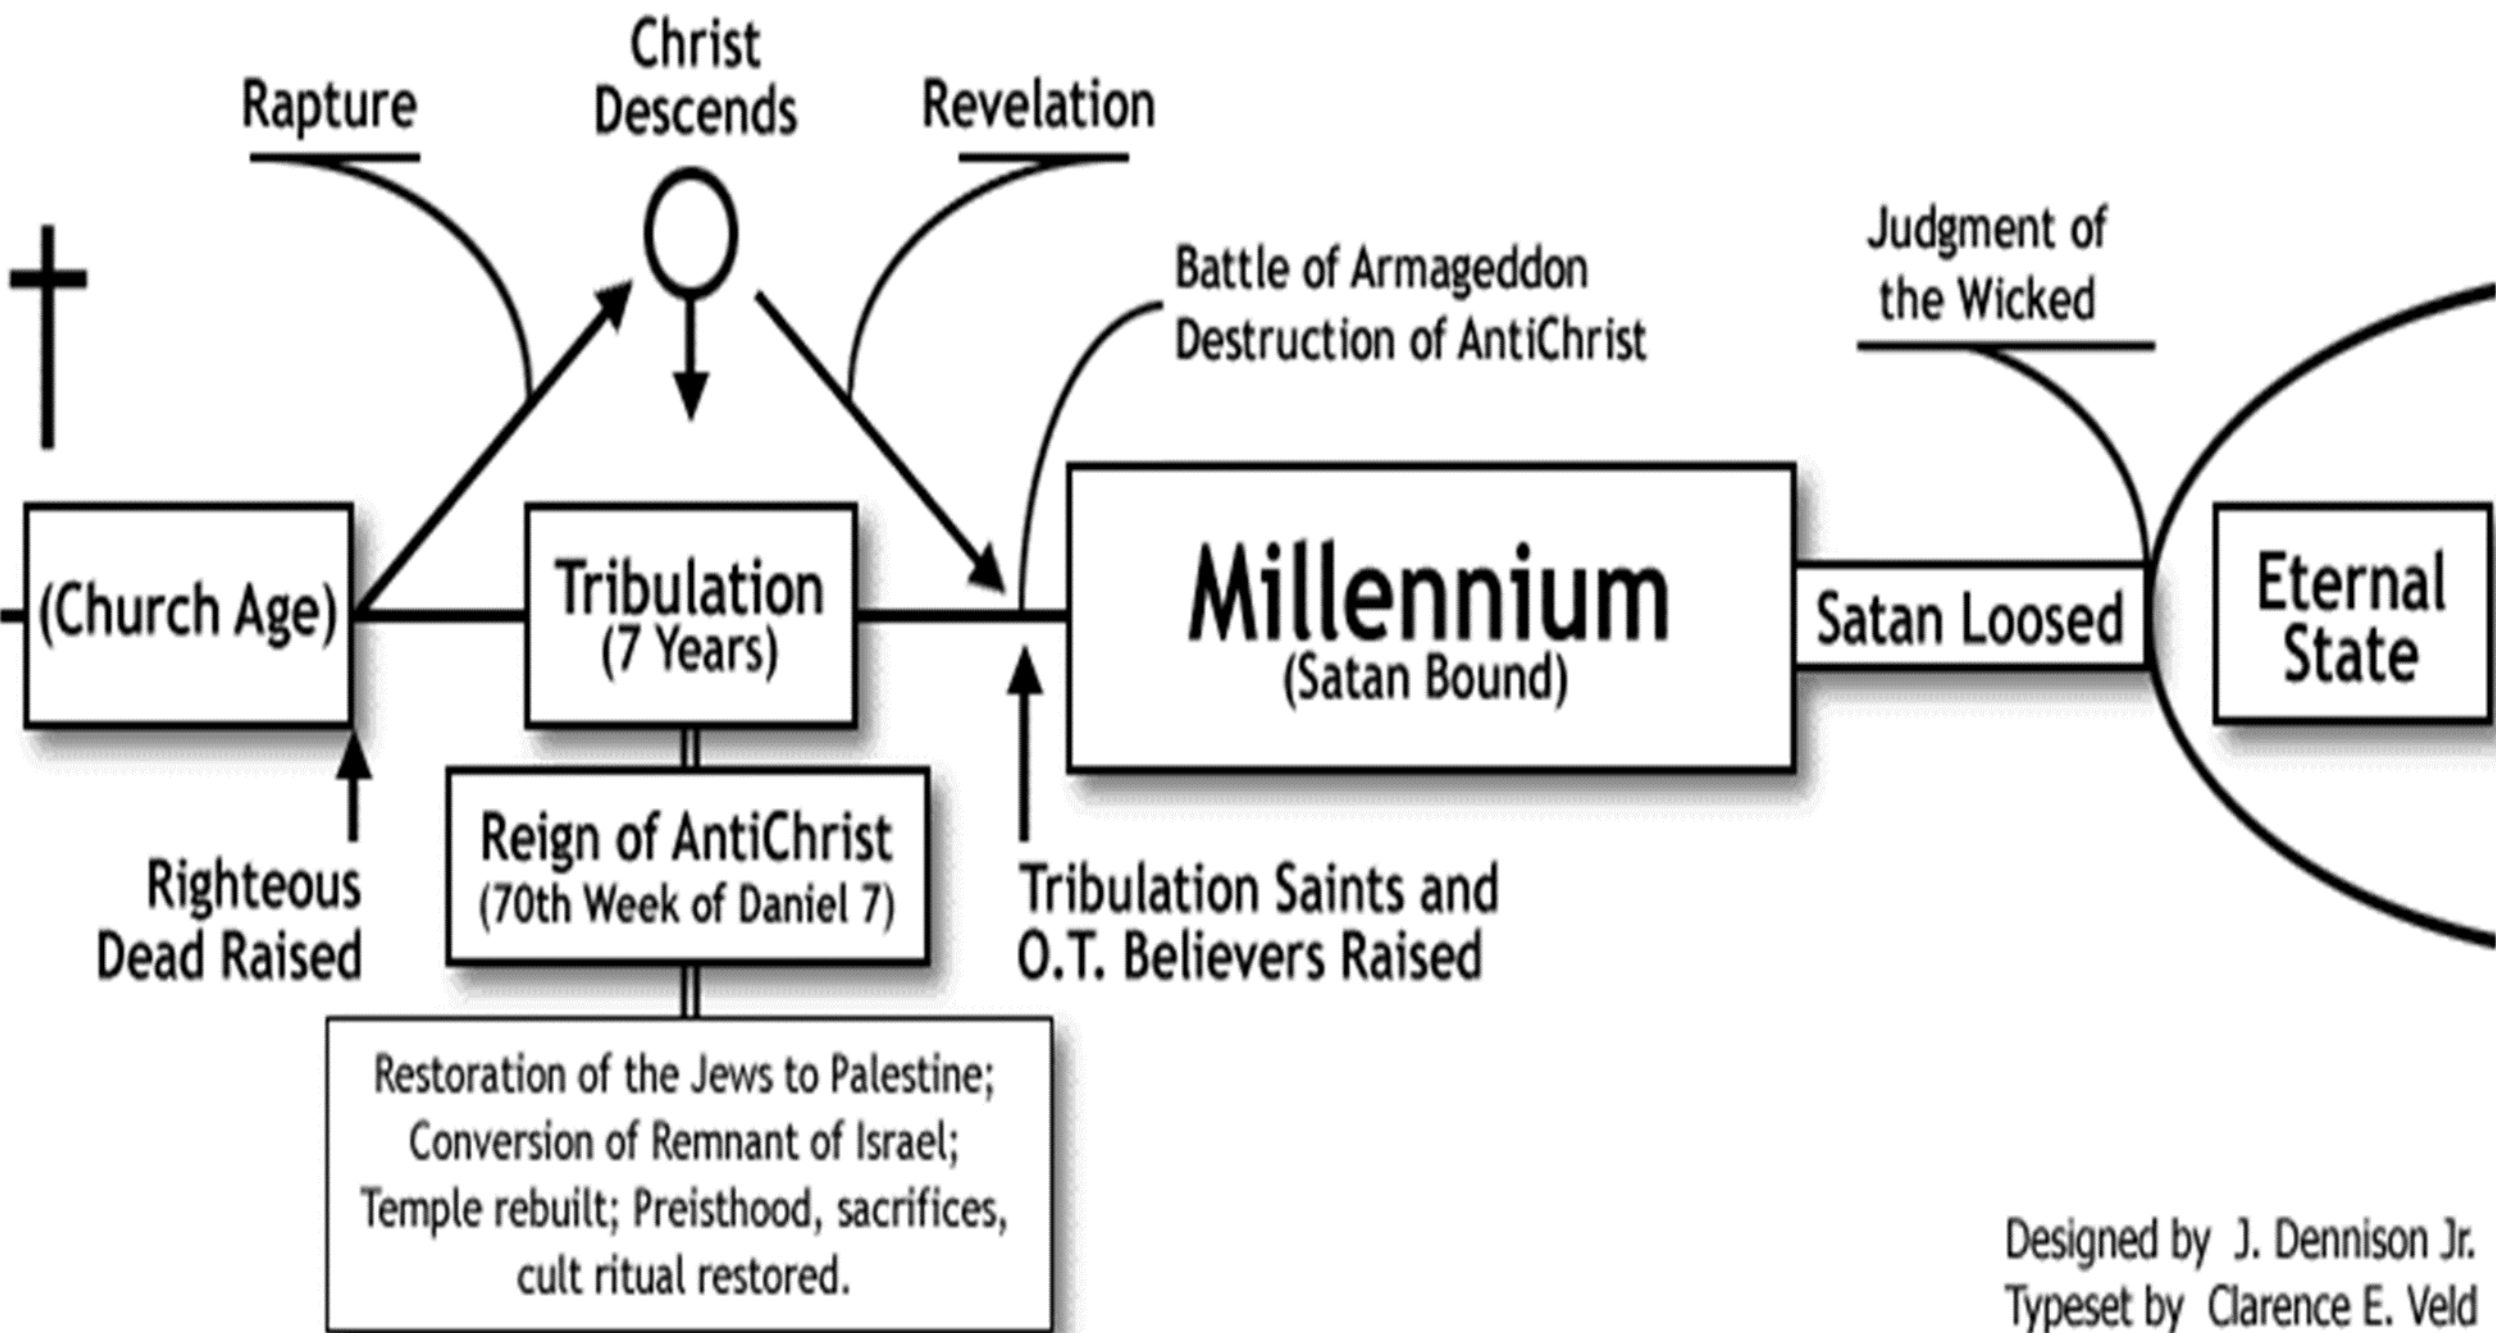

NEVERTHELESS

we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

2 Peter 3: 13

Job 19:25-27

I know that my redeemer lives,
and that in the end He will stand on the earth.
And though this body has been destroyed,
yet in my flesh I will see God;

I myself will see Him with my own eyes —
I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Eye has not seen, doesn't have the words!

- He will dwell among them
- He will wipe away every tear
- “no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain”
- The one who “overcomes” will inherit, all 7 Churches

The End. Jesus Wins.

A man may go to Heaven without health, without riches, without honors, without learning, without friends;
but he can never go there

WITHOUT CHRIST.

“We may speak
about a place where there are no tears, no death,
no fear, no night;
but those are just
the benefits of heaven.
The beauty of heaven is seeing God.”

Max Lucado

A dirt road winds through a forest. The road is flanked by tall, dry grasses and brush. The trees are mostly bare, suggesting autumn or winter. The sky is overcast and grey. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

Jesus's resurrection is the beginning of God's new project not to snatch people away from earth to heaven but to colonize earth with the life of heaven. That, after all, is what the Lord's Prayer is about.

N. T. Wright
