Dear Church Family,

Good morning! I trust you are well this morning and looking forward to worshipping the Lord together. If you are visiting, we want to welcome you. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to let us know how we can serve you.

It is hard to believe the attacks on the Trade Center took place over 20 years ago. As we reflect today on the many who died, suffered, and those impacted in such a tragic way, let's remember to be in prayer for them as well as our nation. In continuing our study in Matthew, the end times is a challenging conversation, isn't it? God gives us certain pictures and some things we know with certainty; other things are not so clear. As we look at Matthew 24:9-14 today, there are many different opinions about what this passage means. Ultimately, we know the Lord will return, and we also know He is the righteous judge. When exactly He returns and/or when the timeline of the tribulation will begin is a date we do not know. What we do know is we are to be ready. We are not to be caught off guard or unprepared. The Lord will come back for His Church. He will also return at the end of the Tribulation. How are we walking in His grace, wisdom, and strength today? Are we walking by faith or by sight? In the Spirit or according to the flesh? These issues are very clear in Scripture. We need to make sure that in everything we are rightly related to the Lord Jesus first, and one another as well. Let's pray for one another as we seek to follow the Lord!

Today we have a couple of guests with us. Don Gordon helped with the baseball clinic yesterday and will be sharing his testimony this morning. Let's welcome him with the love of Christ. Furthermore, Ken Ivins, who serves with AMG ministries and helped us with our mission trip to Guatemala, is here with us. He will be sharing about our trip and bringing a greeting.

There are many things going on! This week we start back with Awana and our weekly Bible studies on Wednesday night. Please be in prayer as we seek to see people grow in Christ through His Word! I am so thankful for all the work done for the baseball clinic. To each who helped and participated, thank you so much! Let's pray God will continue to use the gospel in the hearts and lives of each individual. The Lord be praised. He is above all things. Let's worship Him today and thank Him for all He has done.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Erik
