Visitation Ministry

Dear Jesus It is totally amazing that You understand me—all of me—with absolute accuracy. That could also be terrifying, if You saw me through eyes of law rather than grace. Unfortunately, I often view myself legalistically: evaluating how well I'm performing. I realize how silly that is, because my performance will always be insufficient to meet Your holy standard. That's why I desperately need your grace! Please help me see myself, as well as others, through eyes of grace.

I comprehend you in all your complexity; no detail of your life is hidden from Me. I view you through eyes of grace, so don't be afraid of My intimate awareness.

Beloved, come to Me and receive My unfailing Love. You are troubled by fear of failure, but My Love for you will never fail. Let Me describe what I see, as I view you through eyes of grace. You look regal, for I have clothed you in My royal righteousness. You look radiant, especially when you are gazing at Me. You are lovely as you reflect My Glory back to Me. In fact, you delight Me so much that I rejoice over you with shouts of Joy! This is how you appear through My vision of grace. Because I am infinite. I can see you simultaneously as you are now and as you will be in heaven. The present view helps Me work with you on things you need to change. The heavenly vision enables Me to love you with perfect, everlasting Love.

The best way to see through eyes of grace is to look through the lens of y unfailing Love. As you persevere in this practice, you will gradually find it easier to extend grace both to yourself and to others.

Psalm 36: 7 Psalm 34: 4-5 Zephaniah 3:17

Romans 8:1-4

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem" (2 Chronicles 30:26).

Every person born into this world is born with a sin nature. All of us have made willful choices to break God's law. Without Christ, we stand guilty before God. The sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, however, is the full payment for our sin and removed the law's judgment for those who have trusted in Christ. The guilt of the past is gone, nailed to the cross. The penalty of our sin is gone, nailed to the cross. The way to forgiveness and salvation has been opened, and we have hope for eternity.

Christ died to set us free from sin and the law so we could walk in

Freedom In Christ

Dr. Paul Chappell

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. Colossians 2:14

God gave Moses the law which governed the way the Israelites were to live. Their standing with God came, not from keeping the law but from believing that God's promises of salvation and forgiveness were true. No one could ever fully keep the law, and even if that were possible, it still would not have been sufficient. Paul wrote, "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified" (Galatians 2:16). The law's greatest purpose is to show people their need for a Savior.

Yet rather than learning that lesson, many Israelites over the years decided that keeping the law was too much trouble. And it was not just the little details that they let slip. Even major events like the Feast of Passover stopped being observed. When Hezekiah held a nationwide Passover observance, it was the first time in more than two hundred years. "So there was great joy
