↑ Call to Community

We gather, as God's people, bringing our fears and pain, knowing that when our spirits have grown cold, God rekindles the gift of faith in us.

We gather, as God's people, hanging our broken hearts on the branches of the tree of life.

knowing that while friends may turn against us, God transforms enemies into sisters and brothers.

We gather, as God's people, hungering for healing and hope, knowing that even when life is no picnic, God prepares a feast for us.

First Reading

Psalm 137
Rev. Katie Penick

By the rivers of Babylon – there we sat down and wept when we remembered Zion.

And so we hung up our harps there upon the willows.

For there our captors asked us for songs, and our tormentors asked for mirth, saying: "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

How can we sing God's song in a foreign land? If I forget you O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither!

Let my tongue cling to the roof of mouth, if I do not remember you. If I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy,

Remember O God, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem's fall, how they said, "Tear it down! Tear it down to its foundations!"

O city of Babylon, you devastator! Happy shall they be who pay you back what you have done to us!

Happy shall they be who take your little ones and dash them against a rock.

If I give you thanks, O God, with my whole heart,; before the gods I sing your praise.

I bow down before your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness.

For you have exalted your name and your word above everything.

On the day I called, you answered me, you increased my strength of soul.

All the rulers of the earth shall praise you, O God. for they have heard the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of the ways of God, for great is the glory of God.

For though God is high, God regards the lowly: but the haughty perceives God from far away.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me against the wrath of my enemies.

You stretch out your hand, and your right hand delivers me.

God will fulfill God's purpose for me; your steadfast love, O God endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.

Children's Time

Baptism of Calvin Isaac Shroyer

Introduction

Questions to Parents, Grandparents, and Godparents

Congregation Assent

As the gathered Body of Christ, you have heard the promises of these parents, grandparents, and godparents. Alone, they will be unable to achieve all their hopes and dreams for the enrichment and growth of Calvin. Raising and nurturing a child takes a village. For this child to grow up into all that he might be spiritually, emotionally, and physically, you will need to be a nurturing extended family to him. How do you, as members of the body of Christ, covenant together with these parents and this child?

We rejoice to take Calvin Isaac Shroyer within our fold, gathering him under our wings. With God's help, as a healthy community of love, compassion, kindness, and forgiveness, we will nurture him through action and word. We will pray for Calvin and always accept him as a treasured gift from God to us. We promise to set a worthy and humble example as we encourage him to know and follow Christ.

Affirmation of Faith

Gathered Body of Christ, let us unite with the Church of all ages and places and confess our faith with one heart and voice. Let us profess what we believe and who we are with our shared Mission, Vision and Values:

Our vision for our church is:

To Share God's Inclusive Love, Uniting Us with Our Community.

The mission God sends us out to do is:

To share the gospel of Christ in such a way that we find God, grow our faith, discover our purpose and make a difference.

As followers of Christ, we share these Core Values:

1. We are a community: Where we show Love of God and One Another.
  - Welcoming all people.
  - Celebrating unity and diversity.
  - Working in partnership with other churches.
2. We embrace our Spiritual life: Where God Is Still Speaking by:
  - Encouraging people on their faith journey
  - Listening through prayer
  - Forgiving and being forgiven.
3. We show discipleship in action: Where Justice isn't about "Just Us" by:
  - Striving to imitate the life of Christ in thought, word, and deed.
  - Being good stewards of time, talent & resources.
  - Acting as Christ's hands & voice in the world.
  - Caring for God's creation.

Thanksgiving Over the Water

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise to our God.

Second Reading: Thanksgiving & Encouragement

2 Timothy 1:1-14 (NRSVUE)

Lector: Jean Simmons

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayer's night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason, I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands, for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, in the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace, and this grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard the deposit I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good deposit entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Words of life and beauty

Beautiful words, wonderful words,
wonderful words of life.
Beautiful words, wonderful words,
wonderful words of life.

Third Reading: More Faith

Luke 17:5-10 (NRSVUE)

Rev. Katie Penick

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me; put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!' "

 CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Week of October 2nd

World Communion Sunday / Neighbors in Need Special Offering – Today

The first Sunday in October is World Communion Sunday. United Church of Christ congregations join many Christian churches across the globe for this celebration of unity among churches across denominations. World Communion Sunday began at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1933. The Rev. Hugh Thompson Kerr and his congregation sought to demonstrate the interconnectedness of Christian churches, regardless of denomination. Rev. Kerr appropriately chose the sacrament of Holy Communion to symbolize this unity. In 1940, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America adopted a World-Wide Communion Sunday. The UCC believes in an open table, anyone may receive communion.

Within the United Church of Christ, a special mission offering is collected on World Communion Sunday. The Neighbors in Need (NIN) Special Mission offering supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. This offering helps support the Council for American Indian Ministry and the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries (JWM) such as justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects through denominational grants. In 2022, the Neighbors in Need "BEHOLD!" offering focuses on economic justice. With inflation impacting all of our households, we wanted to provide a way to discuss this topic through a faith lens.

Did you know Zion Reformed UCC has been a benefactor of the NIN grant, obtaining grant monies to help support Tuesday's Supper and One-Stop Shop? Please prayerfully consider making an offering to this important special offering. Offerings to this special mission offering can be made throughout the month of October at church or online. Be sure to designate donations as being for Neighbors In Need (NIN).
