Anyone who has knowledge of the history of small congregations in the US, please contact Dan Green to set a time to be interviewed by some young men from K.C. who are doing research on that subject. They plan to be here Nov.19 and 20. We would like to set interviews for that Sat.—especially Evelyn, Thompson girls, and Dunns.

LESSONS FROM FIRST SAMUEL

1 Samuel 19:1-6 “Saul told his son Jonathan and all the attendants to kill David...” ⁴ Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, “Let not the king do wrong to his servant David; he has not wronged you, and what he has done has benefited you greatly. ⁵ He took his life in his hands when he killed the Philistine. The Lord won a great victory for all Israel, and you saw it and were glad. Why then would you do wrong to an innocent man like David by killing him for no reason?” ⁶ Saul listened to Jonathan and took this oath: “As surely as the Lord lives, David will not be put to death.”

LESSONS FOR US:

- Be a peacemaker.
 - Jonathan was a peacemaker. He talked his father out of killing David.
 - Christians should be peacemakers.
 - Matthew 5:9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.”
 - Romans 12:18 “If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.”
 - Romans 14:19 “Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.”
 - Hebrews 12:14 “Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord.”
 - James 3:18 “Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness.”
