J Morgan Gravley - "Surprised By Hope"

We are quickly approaching the first Sunday of Advent with the theme of "Hope". Hope is a funny thing. We can in one moment hope in the outcome of our favorite sports team, and in the next see no way forward after bombing a play. We can wake up feeling refreshed for the day, hopeful that good will come, and lay down feeling like there's no way forward. We are fickle like that.

But HOPE in a biblical sense is looking forward to promises yet to be fulfilled by God. Hope is not fanciful thinking or some emotion stemming from "pie in the sky" notions of better. Hope is the patient, quiet, and firm expectation that soon - very soon - God will act and things will change.

It is my sincere prayer that you are surprised by HOPE this season. Surprised by a God who sees fit to act, to move, to fulfill promises spoken ages ago. The Apostle Paul writes that we can find HOPE in the written Word and an enduring faith. (Romans 15:4).
