

Harvest Baptist Church - 'Where church still feels like church'

Events and Opportunities

A BIG THANK YOU
 To all our church members that give of their time, energy and talents to keep our church looking nice. Those members that do the landscaping, those that clean the missionary quarters, those that clean the church interior and exterior. Thank you!!

Dear Jesus
 How long to see this all-embracing pattern for good! I can't begin to imagine how You can fit everything into such a pattern. My current situation seems like a gigantic mistake to me: something I should have been able to prevent. I'm trying to accept my circumstances as Your will, but I feel as if I'm clawing my way up a sheer cliff. Help me make a new beginning, right where I am.

Remember that I can fix everything into a pattern for good, including the things you wish were different. Start with where you are at this point in time and space, accepting that this is where I intend you to be.

Beloved, even if I showed you the all-encompassing pattern, you wouldn't be able to understand it. Some things—many things—are simply beyond your comprehension. Do not indulge in obsessing about what you could have done differently, for that is an exercise in unreality: The past cannot be different from what has actually occurred.

There is only one place to make a new beginning, and that is NOW: the unique intersection of time and space you currently inhabit. I believe you can accept the preset moment without too much difficulty. After all, you are conversing with Me, your Savior and Shepherd, this very moment. You can also handle the next moment as it comes—and the next. What you find most difficult to accept is the way the future looks to you: basing your predictions on current circumstances. But the future is one of those secret things beyond your domain: release it to Me, the rightful Owner. Refuse to worry about the future, and you will find your resources for today quite sufficient. Remember that I am part of those resources, and nothing is impossible with Me

Romans 8:28 Deut. 29:29 Luke 1:37

I so long to walk in the way of Peace, and I believe that You are the only Way. I ask that Your Light may shine upon me more and more. I continually need the Light of Your Presence, because I live in a cold, dark world. I desire Your radiant Presence not only for warmth but also for guidance. Please lead me along the path of Peace.

Look for a star of guidance in your life, and be willing to follow wherever I lead. I am the Light from on high that dawns upon you, to guide your feet into the way of Peace.

Beloved, My Presence radiates Light that helps you find the way of Peace. My Word enlightens your mind and heart, empowering you to stay on the right path. As you read Scripture, look for a star of guidance. Ask My Spirit to illumine those words to your seeking heart. They are words of Life!

Remember that I am your Shepherd. To walk in the way of Peace, you must follow Me wholeheartedly. If you drift even slightly from following My lead, you are at risk. For a while you will still be able to see Me, as you go your own way "just a bit." Eventually, however, you will lose sight of Me altogether. Veering even a few degrees off course will ultimately take you far from Me. With your feet no longer on the path of Peace, you will find yourself becoming increasingly anxious. The most important thing at this point is to realize you have lost your way. If you are humble enough, you can call out to Me for help. I am near to all who call on Me. I will hear your cry and save you, leading you back to the way of Peace.

later that they learned their benefactor had been William Gladstone, the Prime Minister of England.

God is so far above us that the gap cannot be measured or even described adequately. Yet in His mercy and love He provides for us not just salvation, but all that we need to live in a way that honors and pleases Him. God demonstrated His willingness to give by sending Jesus to be our Savior. We should never think of Him as stingy, or feel that we must somehow convince Him to help. He gives to us freely because that is His nature.

God is eager to give good things to His children who cry out to Him for help.

Freely Give Us All Things

Dr. Paul Chappell

What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Romans 8:31-34

When St. Paul's Cathedral opened in London in 1708, it was hailed as a marvel of architectural design and beauty. Because of the curved design, people standing in the gallery above the nave found that they could hear a whisper from the other side of the church, and it came to be known as the Whispering Gallery. The story goes that one day a young couple were talking in the gallery. The man, who was a shoemaker told the lady that because his business was struggling, he could not buy leather to make more shoes, and thus could not afford to marry her. A man on the other side of the gallery heard their sorrow and followed the young man to his shop. He then anonymously paid for and had delivered a large shipment of leather, saving the business and allowing the couple to wed. It was not until many years

PRAYER: DEAR LORD, I CRY OUT TO YOU FOR HELP. I HAVE NO ONE BUT YOU TO HELP ME THROUGH THE DIFFICULT DAYS AND LONG NIGHTS. HEAR MY PRAYERS AND ANSWER THEM ACCORDING TO YOUR WILL. IN JESUS' NAME, AMEN.
