Dear Jesus
 Fearfulness seems to come so naturally to me, as if it's the default setting when I let my thoughts run freely. Peacefulness, on the other hand, requires continual effort and a degree of vigilance. I need to stay aware of Your Presence with me, to quiet my anxious heart. I confess I often lose sight of You, as the visible world lures my attention away from Your unseen reality.
Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Hear Me saying "Peace, be still!" to your restless heart.

Beloved, I understand how vulnerable you are to things that impact your senses. It's good that you, too, are aware of this weakness. Also, you recognize that I am the answer to your vulnerability. This condition of yours is ever so human: The visible world tugs at the heartstrings of all My children. Because of this common human tendency, My Word exhorts you to be stalwart and prayerful - fixing your eyes on Me, bringing every thought captive to Me. The sounds of the world (as well as its sights) tend to lead you away from Me. You need a quiet place in order to hear My voice. As you listen intently in My Presence, I guide your mind to think My thoughts. Bringing Me your restless heart, and wait while I speak Peace into its depths - stilling the troubled waters of your soul.
 Hebrews 12:2 Psalm 102:27 I Corinthians 13:12

cruel, involving terrible acts in an effort to show sincerity and appease the wrath of different gods. The true God, rather than requiring us to do something, made the sacrifice on our behalf. "He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities" (Isaiah 53:11).

God made a way for us to become part of His family, exchanging the sinful inheritance we received from our earthly parents (through Adam and Eve) for the robe of righteousness He offers to all who believe.

Coming to God through faith in Jesus Christ provides us access to all of the blessings He has in store for us to receive.

Through Jesus, The Door
 Dr. Paul Chappell

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Romans 5:1-5

Jesus used a number of metaphors to describe Himself in a way that people could understand. In connection with His role as the Good Shepherd, Jesus also pictured Himself as the Door to the sheepfold. He said, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture" (John 10:9). The sacrifice of Jesus provides us so many benefits beyond the great gift of salvation. Through His righteousness applied to our account by grace through faith, we have access to peace with God.

Throughout history different cultures and religions have sought ways to be at peace with God. But in almost every case, their prescription for peace involved the things that people were to do or to avoid. Many of these religious rituals were harsh and
