Opportunities to Serve

Church Ministr	ies
Nursery/Childcare Worker Preschool Bible Study Teacher Children's Bible Study Teacher Middle School Bible Study Teacher AWANA Worker Children's Ministry Worker Youth Ministry Bible Study Teacher Youth Ministry Worker Adult Choir Praise Team Praise Band Sound/Tech Team		Adult Bible Study Teacher Small Group Facilitator ROC Desk Worker Women's Ministry Men's Ministry College/Young Professionals Ministry Senior Adult Ministry Usher Greeter Wednesday Night Kitchen Crew Sunday Morning Coffee Bar Hospitality
Church Commit	tees	5
Bereavement Committee – organizes ministry to relatives in time of bereavement.  Recreation Committee – works with Recreation F		• and enlisting volunteers for programs and Recreational Outreach Center workers.  Youth Committee – supports the youth pastor in planning and implementing a correlated calendar of activities that will involve students in a consistent, well-rounded program of spiritual development.
Family Life Committee – coordinates a program togetherness."	of a	ctivities that encourage "First Family
Audio/Video/Communications Committee – overand helps enlist people to serve.
Music/Worship Committee – assists the Worship evaluating the musical activities of the church and of necessary musical equipment and supplies.	d m	ake recommendations for the purchase
Flower/Decoration Committee – provides decoration the worship center. Children's Committee – recommends and publicities.		·
the children's ministry as well as assist with enlist Preschool Committee – coordinates ministry to p	tme	ent, training, and screening or workers.
recommends and publicizes preschool policies a	nd p	procedures.
Personnel Committee – provides recommendations for future church staff, oversees evaluations, and promotes the care for and financial well-being of all church staff.  Stewardship Committee – is responsible for development of a program which includes budget development, budget subscription, budged education.  Nomination Committee – brings nominations to	et a	dministration and Biblical stewardship church and assists church leaders in discovering programs.

Grounds Committee – is responsible for supervising the maintenance and improvement of church grounds and for the upkeep of grounds maintenance equipment.
Building and Space Committee – plans and oversees maintenance of church property and equipment.
Missions Committee – provides investigation and information for missions locally and globally, as well as determining special offerings.
Outreach Committee - helps to plan local evangelism events in the community and evangelism training for members.
Risk Management Committee – has responsibility of studying the insurances coverages available to the church and developing risk assessments for the church.
Welcome/Usher Committee – is tasked with being the "first face" of the church by greeting, seating, and assisting members and guests.
Committee on Committees - has the responsibility of surveying, recommending, and presenting to the church for election those members who will serve on all church committees.
Memorial Committee – works closely with the church staff in determining items to be purchased from monetary gifts given in memory of members.
Security Committee – develops and implements safety and security protocols for the church.
Community Organizations
Upward Basketball – Christian and Gospel focused basketball league for K-6 th grade, runs January to mid-March.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program
January to mid-March.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills,
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.  Informed Choices Pregnancy Center – a place where pregnant moms can be educated,
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.  Informed Choices Pregnancy Center – a place where pregnant moms can be educated, supported, and cared for before, during, and after pregnancy. They want to protect the Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.  Informed Choices Pregnancy Center – a place where pregnant moms can be educated, supported, and cared for before, during, and after pregnancy. They want to protect the unborn life and help in cases of crisis pregnancies.
January to mid-March.  Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.  Informed Choices Pregnancy Center – a place where pregnant moms can be educated, supported, and cared for before, during, and after pregnancy. They want to protect the unborn life and help in cases of crisis pregnancies.  The Call Boone County – organization helping children find foster care homes, as well as Hope Cottages – a ministry to homeless moms and their children that has a program helping them get back on their feet and living on their own.  House of Hope – offers food and shelter to the poor, needy, and homeless, also provide overnight shelter for homeless during the colder winter days.  Ozark Share and Care – gives assistance to the needy of our community with paying bills, providing food, and clothing.  Sharing Kitchen – provides a free meal to individuals on Saturdays, operates under Share and Care.  Arkansas Baptist Ranch – part of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes network, they foster children from same families looking for potential adoptive families for them.  The Sanctuary – a safe place for women and kids to go who are victims of domestic violence.  Informed Choices Pregnancy Center – a place where pregnant moms can be educated, supported, and cared for before, during, and after pregnancy. They want to protect the unborn life and help in cases of crisis pregnancies.